Young Leaders Of Party Cheer For President

FIVE HUNDRED ATTEND MEETING

U. S. Conference Of Young Republicans Turns Into "Hoover Meeting"

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 12.—President Hoover's renomination and re-election was predicted today for the first time by a member of his cabinet in a public address when Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde spoke before the National Conference of Young Republicans.

The declaration of Hyde, made after he had discussed the Federal Farm Board, was greeted by a tumultuous demonstration by his 500 auditors.

The president already had been proposed for another four years term by Senator Simeon D. Fess (R) of Ohio, chairman of the Republican National committee, as the conference of young Republicans, called by the National Committee for organization purposes, turned into a "Hoover meeting."

Nominating Speech

But Hyde's statement apparently was accepted as an official view of the president's intention to seek re-election. It was received as a nomination speech.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Autoists are evidently not taking advantage of the city's free parking ground next to the fire department in South Jefferson street. At one o'clock today there were approximately only five machines parked in the free parking space.

City drinking fountains will soon be in operation on the streets.

Schools have hardly been emptied for the summer vacation—but Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds Ligo is already at work with his corps of repairmen who are overhauling all the schools.

Thursday evening seemed to be ladies' night at the municipal golf course. There were more women out playing last night than in some time, several foursomes composed entirely of women being noticed while there were a number of mixed foursomes and couples on the course. The fairways and greens were well dotted with players after 6 o'clock last evening.

Explosion Sets Fire To Barn In Rear Of Meadville Hotel

(International News Service)

MEADVILLE, Pa., June 12.—Fire, believed to have resulted from an explosion, early today swept through a barn in the rear of the Columbus Hotel here, sending hotel guests and adjoining apartment residents to the street in scanty attire.

Origin of the explosion was not established. Flames from the burning barn scorched an adjacent garage.

Continue Effort To Raise Sub In Yellow Sea Tomb

British Admiralty Convinced That Eighteen Aboard Sub Are Dead

NO RESPONSES TO TAPPINGS HEARD

Rough Weather Has Held Up Rescue Work—American Boats Are Aiding

(International News Service)

LONDON, June 12.—The British Admiralty expressed the belief today that the 18 men entombed at the bottom of the Yellow Sea were dead in the submarine Poseidon although efforts to raise the sunken craft will be continued.

It was believed that the American submarine salvager Pigeon dispatched to the scene by the United States Government, can do nothing beyond supplementing the efforts of the half dozen British war vessels at the scene of the wreck.

No Responses

The rescuers have been greatly handicapped by the rough weather prevailing in the Yellow Sea. Divers have succeeded in reaching the sunken submarine but their Morse Code rappings have failed to produce any response from within.

The Poseidon sank Tuesday within two minutes of being rammed by the Chinese steamer Yuta. At the time the submarine was at the surface. Thirty three members of the crew jumped overboard and were picked up by the Yuta. Four others, succeeded in freeing themselves from their prison 120 feet under water by means of new submarine escape apparatus. Two of the survivors died later from their injuries.

Governor Signs Firearms Bill

MEASURE FOUGHT BY LARGE NUMBER

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, June 12—While representatives of law enforcement organizations looked on, Gov. Gifford Pinchot today signed the Witkin House bill which will regulate sale and possession of firearms.

The act does not apply to shotguns and rifles of standard length such as are ordinarily carried by hunters, or to possession of weapons of any kind in a home or place of business.

Approvel of the measure was the final chapter of a long fight, which featured each recent session of the legislature, sponsored by law-enforcing organizations throughout the commonwealth.

The state's half million hunters invariably opposed as a unit former proposed acts which would have affected them. The Witkin bill is so worded as to apply only to shotguns with barrels less than 24 inches and to rifles with barrels less than 15 inches. It does apply, however, to all pistols or revolvers with barrels of less than twelve inches.

Must Have License

After Sept. 1, when the act becomes effective, a license to carry a weapon as described in the act either upon the person or in an automobile will be necessary.

Such licenses may be issued by police or sheriffs. Fee for the license will be fifty cents except for those possesing hunting licenses. All police officers, members of military organizations, and those belonging to rifle and pistol target shooting organizations if enroute to

CATTLE ROUNDUP IN CITY THRILLS MANY AS HERD PASSES BY

It wasn't exactly a round-up in real western style that spectators at the South Mill and Division streets freight office of the B. & O. saw last night when a herd of 31 head of cattle bounded out of a cattle car.

It was only the end of a ride for the herd before it entered the green grazing land of Thomas Cooper of the Harlansburg district.

The Harlansburg cattleman had purchased the young cattle in Chicago recently in order to take advantage of excellent pasture. The herd of 31 was driven thru city streets to the farm on a route that included a stretch north on Mill to Crotoh then to East Brook and finally to the Cooper property.

Believe Sister Of Slain Girl Knows Details

Elizabeth Tucker Faithfull Branded As Enigma In New York Murder Mystery

LONDON FRIEND OFFERS SOLUTION

Sister To Be Questioned In Probe Before Grand Jury By Officers

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 12.—Elizabeth Tucker Faithful, chic 19-year-old sister of the slain New York beauty, Starr Faithful, today was branded as the enigma in the solution of the mysterious murder of Starr.

"If Elizabeth would talk——" said District Attorney Elvin J. Edwards of Nassau county as he prepared to go before a grand jury today in Mineola with the case. He intimated that the sophisticated Tucker knew more about the murder of her sister than she had revealed.

Elizabeth's departure from New York at the same time the girl disappeared from her home here last Friday was one point on which Edwards wished to question Elizabeth when she appeared today with her mother and her step-father, Stanley E. Faithful, before the grand jury.

Part of the time between Friday, when Starr vanished, and Monday, when her body was found on a nearby beach, Elizabeth said she was in Boston. Faithful said she was in New York.

"Elizabeth has been very mysterious about where she spent the week end" Edwards said. "She may have been with her sister, remember, there were two men."

The two men referred to by the district attorney were the pair an elevator operator said he saw with the slain girl either Thursday or Friday of last week. Edwards was believed to have halted cremation of the girl's body last night so that the elevator operator could look at the body today.

Met Men On Boat

Elizabeth had informed the authorities that Starr went out last Thursday with two men she met on the Liner Franconia. Starr, it was said, had told Elizabeth she was going out with the same men the next day, which was Friday, the day she disappeared.

It was revealed that while Starr seemed to have large sums of money most of the time, her mother and Elizabeth had seen periods of almost want. Starr was always fashionably dressed. The district attorney would not comment today on the possibility that the cultured young girl had been involved with blackmailers.

Appropriations Bill Is Signed

Governor Pinchot Approves Appropriations For Next Two Years

ONLY FEW CUTS MADE IN MEASURE

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, June 12.—Approving appropriations of $150,391,967.62 to finance operations of State Government for the two years starting June 1, Gov. Gifford Pinchot today signed the General Appropriation Bill passed by the recent legislature.

Although the governor sliced $2,776,050 from the bill as it passed the assembly, in its approved form it exceeds by $1,241,159.81 the budget recommendations for the same purposes. The bill carried total appropriations of $153,168,017.62 when it received the approval of the legislature.

Total Near $350,000,000

In addition to the general appropriation bill, measures carrying approximately $40,000,000 appropriations will be approved by the governor before June 27, last day for action on measures, and with special funds and appropriations these will bring the total state expenditures for the biennium close to the $350,000,000 mark.

One of the principal cuts made by the governor was in appropriation

Plan To Dedicate New Epworth Church On Sunday, July 12

Magnificent New East Side Structure Is Near Completion

Tentative Plans Now Being Made For Ceremony Of Dedication

Barring any unforeseen emergencies, Sunday July 12th will see the dedication of New Castle's newest church, the Epworth Methodist Episcopal located at the corner of East Washington Street and Butler avenue, according to an announcement today by the pastor of the church, Rev. Samuel L. Maxwell.

For months the new building has been in course of progress and passersby have commented upon the dignified appearance of the exterior. The pleasing reaction to the exterior will not compare to that experienced at first view of the interior, for few churches in this part of the state have such an unusual layout. Dignity and beauty have been combined with usability and the result is a church built for service, but with such character that one is reminded of the cathedrals of the Old World.

All Stone Building

The building itself is of Brier Hill Sawed Sand Stone, a durable stone of vari-colored hue. As the weather lays its hand upon the stone it will become the more beautiful. The trim is of Indiana limestone, with the roof a multi-colored slate.

Standing at the point of East Washington and Butler avenue, the church commands a view of both streets and has entrances leading from each, with a porte cochere on the Butler avenue side to accomodate vehicular traffic. In the rear of the church will be a spacious parking grounds, capable of accomodating about one hundred automobiles, while the front and two sides will be landscaped.

United Miners Urge Hoover To Call Conference

United Mine Workers Would Have President Issue Call For Joint Session

ASK DISCUSSION OF BIG PROBLEMS

Ills Of Coal Fields Far Too Great To Be Remedied By Self-Aid

(International News Service)

INDIANAPOLIS, June 12.—Appealing to President Hoover to call a joint meeting of operators and miners, the executive board of the United Mine Workers of America through John L. Lewis, the International President, today had laid before the Chief Executive the plight of workers in the bituminous fields, thousands of whom, the message declared, have been "degraded to levels approximating serf labor."

Union officials forwarded their appeal to Mr. Hoover by telegram. They urged that the meeting be called in order to discuss the "problems of the industry" and find a "common basic understanding. The coal operators were suffering from lack of leadership, the message said, and the condition of the women and children in the demoralized coal regions was described as "inhuman."

"The operators, the coal miners, coal mining communities, and the press of the nation, recognize the ills of the bituminous coal industry as being of such a dangerous nature

White House in a time of stress Hyde declared he had never heard the president complain of criticism.

In defending the farm board he said it had had "bad breaks."

Stabilization of prices, he explained, was forced on the board by the stock market crash and the threat that farm prices would sink so low as to create a bank panic in the middle west.

The real purpose of the board, he said, is to organize the farmers.

He added that if the farmers won't control his production "no power on earth can save him from the consequences."

Prof. James J. Robinson of Indiana University followed Hyde with praise of the Republican party..

PLAN TO DEDICATE NEW EPWORTH CHURCH ON SUNDAY, JULY 12

Street or Butler Avenue one steps into a vestibule floored with colored, irregular slate, a floor of such rugged beauty that one pauses a moment to admire it. Slate steps lead up to the nave from which one enters the auditorium or Grace chapel, the nave separating the two.

The auditorium is one of such unusual design and architectural beauty as to halt one in his steps. Not a pillar or post mars it from nave to altar. The trusses are plastered forming cathedral arches, with a beamless ceiling. Cork panels in the ceiling make for perfect acoustics, while the floor will be covered with jaspe and marble tile linoleum. There will be three aisles, one on each side of the auditorium and the main aisle in the center. The seats will be level, with the pulpit rising high enough to furnish perfect vision for every seat in the auditorium. At the back end of the auditorium is a small balcony, above which the echo organ loft is placed. The altar and pulpit are directly in front of the choir loft. The auditorium will be lighted by lantern type lights, adding to the ancient cathedral like appearance.

Large Chapel

Grace chapel which is back of the auditorium, and which is named in honor of the Grace M. E. Church some time ago merged with Epworth, is a commodious room and will be used as the assembly room for the Sunday school. Here also will be found the ladies parlors, 6 class rooms and other small rooms.

In the basement is located the kitchen, large and roomy, designed to care for any emergency. The community room joining it can be used for a dining room capable of seating 600 guests, or as an assembly room for programs. The primary department will be located in the basement with the room subdivided into class rooms. Here also will be found the Men's Bible Class room. The floors of the basement are of mastic tile, in green and brown.

On the second floor of the church are found 14 class rooms, and the Sunday school office, while on the third floor are 6 more large rooms.

The architects for the church were W. G. Eckles and Company, and associated with them were Mayer, Meyers and Phillips of New York noted church architects. The general contract was let to J. Clyde Gilfillan Company, with the plumbing going to F. P. Andrews, the heating to the Withers Bradford Company, the seats to the American Seating Company and the electric wiring to J. H. Gilfillan.

The Building Committee of Epworth M. E. is composed of Senator George T. Weingartner, chairman; Robert A. Stitzinger, J. H. Nelson, Chester P. Reynolds, Mrs. Lou Marshall and Rev. Samuel L. Maxwell.

Plans are now going forward for the dedication service on July 12th and an outstanding figure on the Methodist church will be here to make the dedicatory address.

The famous detective organization, according to the Daily Express, unearthed the fact that Starr, in leaving the hotel hurriedly and abandoning her baggage, left a diary which not only spoke of the man she sought vainly to telephone a dozen times daily but mentioned the names of many prominent New Yorkers. Written in a neat hand, it described adventures extending over a period of several years.

One entry recalled by the manager of the Golden Cross said: "Life holds nothing more for me and if ——(name deleted) doesn't meet me I have nothing left to live for."

The London Daily Mail, in a purported interview with Rudolph Haybrook, scenic artist and said to be one of Starr's closest friends, quoted him as saying that the girl was murdered because "she was to have been principal witness in a $25,000 settlement case which would have caused a sensation when tried."

ally with well authenticated reports that federal conciliators who have investigated the situation were enroute to Washington with a recommendation that Secretary of Labor William N. Doak call a miners-operators conference to end the walkout.

Miners Are Arming.

Arming of the striking miners was freely and frankly admitted.

Vincent Kemenovich, strike leader of the National Miners Union, left wing offshoot of the United Mine Workers of America, declared:

"Unless the coal company officials change their attitude there will be another Herron here. This thing of shooting and injuring miners is going to bring serious consequences.

"I don't have to tell you that all of these miners are armed."

Unless there is a radical change in the operators' attitude, Kemenovich said, National Miners Union leaders would not shoulder responsibility for the preservation of peace and quiet.

Open Inquiry.

While the coal districts buzzed with excitement today as scattered marches took place under the leadership of miners' organizations state and federal investigators opened an inquiry into the shooting of three strikers at the Kinloch mine of the Valley Camp Coal Company.

Walter Crytser, of New Kensington, an investigator for the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry, and Peter Bollenbecker, local agent for the United States Department of Labor, both probing the Kinloch shooting, declined to reveal their findings. Three strikers were shot down at Kinloch in a clash with Westmoreland county deputies. Both were expected to forward their reports to Gov. Pinchot and Secretary of Labor Doak respectively.

Women Arrested.

Five women, alleged to have participated in a march on the Montour No. 10 mine of the Pittsburgh Coal Company, at Library, were arrested on charges of defying the orders of Sheriff Robert H. S. Cain, of Allegheny county. Cain ordered women to cease participation in the mine strike marches. A bystander at a demonstration at Gallitin was shot last night and four miners in an automobile near Wildwood were stoned in the recent disorders.

The women arrested at Library were: Mrs. Louis Gorsek, 36, of Bethel Heights; Mrs. Angeline Rupnik, 32, of Library; Mrs. Bessie Miller, 30, of Coverdale; Mrs. Anna Lucas, 36, of Coverdale; and Miss Nellie Boussza, 16, of Coverdale. The women were taken from the line of march by state troopers and deputies and brought to Sheriff Cain's office in Pittsburgh for questioning.

for the Public Service Commission where $862,000 inserted by the Senate to enlarge personnel of the commission was sliced out. The biggest cut was $1,058,000 from the Department of Public Instruction. All but about $20,000 of it coming from the allotment for maintenance and repairs to State Teachers' Colleges.

In his budget message, Gov. Pinchot recommended appropriations totaling $190,248,100.81, but many of the recommendations are cared for in individual bills. The assembly passed appropriation bills totaling $214,374,709.34, leaving about forty million dollars in appropriations still to be acted upon.

Schools Get Over Half

Despite the big slash in the Department of Public Instruction appropriation, the department got 55 per cent of the total bill. Fifteen percent of the total goes to the welfare department and 37 per cent is alloted the subsidy for common schools.

Fifty-six million dollars is allowed in the bill for public schools and an additional $1,250,000 was approved by the governor for state aid to the schools.

Specific appropriations included in the bill were $50,000 for the William Penn Landing celebration next year, $5,000 for the Lake Erie and Ohio Canal Board, $125,000 for the Washington Crossing Park, $180,000 for the Valley Forge Park Commission, and $150,000 to the State Park and Harbor Commission.

The governor's office appropriation included $410,400 for salaries and general expenses, the same amount appropriated to Gov. John S. Fisher two years ago. No cut was made in the appropriation to the treasury, headed by Gen. Edward Martin, political opponent of the governor.

UNITED MINERS URGE HOOVER TO CALL CONFERENCE

that no self-aid can be expected from the industry's one initiative," the appeal stated in urging Mr. Hoover to take official cognizance of the situation.

Correction Needed

"The prevalent belief is that only through the efforts and leadership of outside influence can a basis be reached for correction of existing abuses. The bituminous coal industry needs further investigation —the facts of this backward and ill functioning industry are known to all who would trouble themselves to ascertain them. Already there has been too much palliative talk and insufficient action.

"The executive board of the United Mine Workers of America feels that the inhuman plight of the women and children, the insecurity of the capital assets of the coal companies, the degradation of men employed in the coal mines, all of which are breeding Communism and anarchy, are of such serious moment that the Government of the United States can no longer pursue a passive policy."

Mr. Hoover was assured in the telegram that the executive board of the United Mine Workers would render all possible assistance to resolve the meeting into an effective agency in the settlement of the coal industry's problems.

The Chief Executive was urged to take action through his own office because the "crisis is of such vital importance, the degradations in the coal industry so far reaching, that the conference, when called, should not be delegated as a department matter."

President Hoover was reminded that "your knowledge and experience as a mining engineer especially equips you to recognize the necessity of the bituminous coal industry's adopting a program stabilizing labor costs as the first fundamental step to a correction of present day evils."

Deaths of the Day

Miller Kegarise.

Miller Kegarise, lifelong and highly respected resident of North Beaver township, Lawrence county, died today in the hospital at Cambridge, N. Y., following an illness due to his advanced age. He had been a resident of North Beaver township district until about six years ago, when he went to Cambridge, N. Y., where he had been residing since that time with his daughter Mrs. James McMorris of that place. Mr. Kegarise would have been 81 years old this month.

His wife preceded him in death about eleven years ago. He leaves the following children, B. H. Kegarise of 516 Winter avenue, this city, Mrs. Elizabeth McMorris of Cambridge, N. Y., with whom he had been residing, Mrs. W. McQuiston of the New Wilmington road, Ellis Kegarise and Arthur Kegarise of the New Bedford road. He was a member of Kings Chapel M. E. church.

The body and funeral party will leave Cambridge, N. Y., this evening for this city. Announcement of the time and place of funeral will be made later.

Mrs. Grilli Funeral

Funeral services were held this morning at 10 o'clock from St. Vitus church for Mrs. Mary Grilli, 760 Harrison street, with Rev. Fr. DeMita as celebrant at high requiem mass; Rev. Fr. Donatelli was deacon and Rev. Fr. Anthony of Bessemer acted as sub deacon.

Interment was made in St. Vitus cemetery with Panani Geacanno, John Christopher, A. Grazini, M. Galdo, Frank Ingheth and Tamaro Latezni acting as pallbearers.

Infant Dodds.

Billy Blair Dodds, aged five days, the infant son of Gilbert and June Frazier Dodds, died in the Jameson Memorial hospital at 3:50 this morning. The child was born June 7.

In addition to the parents, the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert S. Dodds, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Frazier survive. Burial took place this afternoon in Graceland cemetery.

"No Excuse For Running Red Lights"--Chief

Motorists Should Be More Careful In Observing Traffic Regulation

"No excuses will be accepted," said Chief of Police C. C. Horner, "in the cases of motorists ordered into police court for running through the red traffic signal light.

"There are quite a number of motorists who have so far forgotten themselves as to be making a practice of running through the red light at various dangerous crossings, where traffic lights are maintained, and when ordered in make a dreadful fuss about being compelled to pay a fine.

"There is no excuse for the motorist who runs through the red light, if he is driving carefully and with his car under control, and we will accept no excuses for such offenses, which are among the most serious violations of traffic regulations that we are called upon to deal with."

Request City To Rush Plans, Paving

Property Owners In Ray Street Anxious To Have Improvement Made

Residents of Ray street, headed by Attorney Frank Hover, today met with council when the body convened in the municipal building and asked council to have the city engineer expedite the drafting of plans and specifications for paving Ray street between the end of the present paving and Croton avenue. They also asked council to then expedite paving.

Council Acts To Help Stem Flood

Motion Authorizes Treser To Have 150 Foot Clay Tile Sewer Built

Members of council agreed today to take a temporary step toward eliminating some of the flood waters in Wilmington avenue section. Council authorized Councilman Treser to have a clay tile sewer run about 150 feet from Wilmington avenue at curb, immediately north of Winter avenue, northeast on a line between the Gilfillan and Sedgwick properties. It is within Treser's jurisdiction, the councilmanic motion read, to act. Another small sewer north may also be needed Treser indicated.

In the meantime the city engineer has been ordered to prepare plans and specifications and also an estimate of cost of a permanent sewer to take care of the water which pours into land east of Wilmington avenue beginning in the vicinity of Euclid avenue.

Hundred Share In Scout Camp Picnic

Business College Group Stages Afternoon-Evening Outing Yesterday

Approximately 100 students and friends of the New Castle Business college frolicked at Camp John M. Phillips of the Boy Scouts, along the banks of the Slippery Rock, on Thursday afternoon and evening in their annual athletic outing and picnic.

During the afternoon, while the hot sun made things swelter, swimming, tennis, volley ball, mushball, pee-wee golf and a number of other sports were enjoyed. A delicious dinner was served in the camp dining lodge at 6 o'clock.

A campfire event in the camp's natural assembly theatre, at which time a program was given, featured the evening hours.

The committee in charge included Ralph Montgomery, chairman; Ray Maxwell, Anna Bintrim, Miriam Rigby, Paul Valense, Miss Dorothy DeVassie and Mrs. Fannie Peebles.

May Allow Borough Sewer Connections

Attorney Clyde Alley, South New Castle borough solicitor today appeared before council which convened in city hall and said the property owners in Hanna and Morris street, New Castle borough would like to be allowed to connect with the city sanitary system.

He said the property owners have cesspool tanks but sewage seeps through the ground and flows in the city where it enters Big Run.

Alley said the property owners would like to alleviate the situation.

Council was told by Solicitor White the property owners would have to build their own sewers and then honor any condition relative to sewage the citizens of New Castle must obey.

The solons instructed Attorneys Alley and White to confer with the city engineers and work out some plans to be presented to council and which would alleviate the situation.

REGULATING FIREARMS SALE IN STATE

UNDER the provisions of a measure known as the Witkin Bill, passed by the recent state legislature, and signed late yesterday by Governor Gifford Pinchot, the first measure regulating the sale and possession of firearms in the state is soon to become effective.

The new law becomes effective on September 1. After that time a license will be required to carry a weapon such as a revolver, either on the person or in the auto. The act does not apply to rifles and shotguns of standard length such as ordinarily carried by hunters, the measure not being aimed at licensing of the guns used by hunters.

The measure was passed by the state legislature and signed by the governor as a result of state wide insistence on the part of many of the citizens that the free and easy acquisition of deadly weapons that are used in crime be curtailed. Under the new law, dealers will not be allowed to deliver firearms such as affected by the bill for 48 hours after they are ordered. Applications must be filed by those desiring to purchase the weapon with a detailed personal description, and these will be filed for reference with the police authorities and state.

The law also provides for additional penalties for any person convicted of a crime of violence while possessing a weapon illegally.

It is believed that this measure will prove beneficial in this state, and will serve as a check on the multitude of crimes in which deadly weapons have figured in recent years. No one expects that regulating the sale of firearms is going to act as an absolute check on crime, but it is believed that it will prove a step in the right direction, by making it harder for weapons to be speedily purchased, and making the penalty more severe when the guns are used in crimes in which they are in the possession of the criminals illegally.

FAST PROGRESS IN THE AIR

It seems but a year or two ago that the people of the United States and their spokesmen in government and commerce were complaining because of the country's backwardness in aviation. They wanted an efficient and far-reaching air mail, commercial passenger and express lines, and an adequate air defense. All of these wishes have been gratified as if by magic, so rapid has been aviation's development here.

What the air defense over the land can do was demonstrated by the recent air maneuvers in the East and Middle West. Commercial aviation has reached out to every corner and state and is carrying millions of passengers and tons of express and mail.

So also can the government air mail hold its head high. The air mail system has increased in four years from 8039 to 41,501 miles of airways. Six hundred planes operate over the routes, of which 15,258 miles are equipped with lights for night flying and with radio and weather stations. Another 3221 miles are now being so equipped.

The air mail system is costing the government more than $20,000,000 a year to equip and operate, of which only a small fraction is being returned through the sale of air mail postage, but the public counts the money well spent and business finds the service indispensable. Moreover, there are certain valuable by-products from this service. The air mail is making important contributions to the science of aeronautics and to the air defense.

DOES ROAD OIL STICK WHEN THE MOON WANES?

A picturesque superstition of Pennsylvania German folk may be subjected to a laboratory test under state auspices. Recently Secretary Lewis received a letter commending him for having the oil crews start work on macadam roads during the "increase of the moon." The writer predicted that practically no loss of oil would result. But if the oil were applied during the "decrease of the moon," the correspondent warned, passing automobiles would pick much of it up and carry it away on their fenders.

The highway department has been asked to make scientific tests for a comparison of results. If a lunar influence can be proved in the adhesion of road oil to automobiles, as is shown to be true in the case of a lunar influence on ocean tides, the coincidence may challenge some future Einstein to trace a correlation in the phenomena.

BACK TO PRE-WAR PRICES

Commodities are now "back to normalcy." According to the Analist weekly index, wholesale prices for the first week of this month averaged 100.4, reckoned on a base of 100 for the year 1913. If this drop has not yet been fully realized in retail prices, it soon will be.

Thus we are definitely back to pre-war prices. They are not the whole cost of living, but most of it for most people. Lucky is the family that can take advantage of them with a post-war income.

As usual, the benefits of this deflation are very unevenly distributed among consumers. Creditors as a class gain, provided they can collect money due them, because every dollar buys more than the dollar they lent. Debtors as a class lose, because every dollar they pay back is worth more, and harder to get, than the dollar they borrowed. This injustice will follow all such fluctuations until we find some way to stabilize the value of the dollar, in relation to other values as a whole.

Sun Song
You Ought to Be Working
But Here You Are Shirking

By MARSHALL MASLIN

Sitting in the sun, in a nice warm corner, in a quiet place. Work to be done, but you don't want to do it, sitting in the sun, and nobody shouting, "You must hop to it!" Sitting in the sun, with peace upon your face. Just sitting in the sun, and not ashamed a bit. Just being lazy. Folks who work are crazy and don't know when to quit.

Sitting here, in the morning sun, watching little green leaves. Like the little bird in the poem who "lets his whole being o'errun with the deluge of summer he receives." And like that little bird in other ways. Just satisfied to sit in quiet praise. Of the clear blue sky. Of the small grass coming out. Of buds that swell. Of the merry shout of distant children playing. Of the sweet old smell of the old brown earth. Of the happy sigh and the easy mirth of this cheerful morning. No grief, no troubles, no threat, no warning, no loud command: "There's Work to Be Done!" It's enough, it's perfect, at such a time just to be sitting, sitting in the sun.

Every sound is a cheerful rhyme. Birds hopping 'round. Tiny things crawling under twig and grass. Every tree is all dressed up in pink or white or other bloom. Softly the hours pass. There's room—there's room for all, for everything that's feathered or furred, or sings a loud song or goes unhead, on such a gallant morning.

You ought to be working at some busy fellow's dare—but here you are shirking and I know you don't care. Here you are sitting on the end of your spine, whittling on a stick, spitting at a line, as you didn't worry, as if it didn't matter—all the world's great hurry and the world's great clatter—as if your silent motto was, "The World is Mine."

You're a lazy fellow, you'll never get ahead, you'll never have a monument when you are dead. You'll never have ample of this world's gold, nor be a fine example to youth when you are old—and you reach the wintry days and the sun grown cold. You'll just have memories of sitting in the sun when there was work you ought to do and you hadn't even begun. . . . But I'll think of you sittin with all that work to do. And I'll think of the peace and the quiet of the place . . . and the singing in your heart and the joy upon your face . . . and I might as well admit I'll be envying YOU.

KEEP ON STUDYING

In your conversations what do you give of value to those to whom you talk?

Matters of small importance, trivial things, not worth taking up are exhausively discussed.

Take an inventory of the important information you possess.

How little you know aside from the ordinary matters of daily life.

In association you choose those who engage in the same line of small, silly chatter, that you enjoy.

If you did not enjoy it you would not waste time with it.

And so you become very uninteresting to those of any other class.

How much important, desirable information have you stored the past year?

But you say you are not in school—enough of that.

To live a worthwhile life you must study as much after school days are over as you did when you were younger.

If you have not studied some you lose facts and so each year you know less.

Your store of information flies rapidly from disuse.

Unless you think about what you have studied and make some use of the facts learned you cannot recall them at your bidding.

Dear Hints and Dints: The other evening at sundown my wife and I were out walking when we saw on the other side of the street a lady who was in a bad fix. She wore a dress six inches below her knees, too, or else her stockings were unusually long. Anyway, one stocking had fallen and turned itself wrong side out so that the top hung eight inches below the lady's skirts and flapped hither and yon as she walked. People on the street stared and snickered, but the lady walked jauntily and proudly, wholly unaware of being ridiculous. My first impulse, for I am a sympathetic cuss, was to call across the street: "Lady, pull up your stocking." But I restrained myself. I learned long ago that it is a thankless job to tell people about their faults. Years ago I knew a preacher who needed a little helpful criticism. He had a few little mannerisms that made him ridiculous in the pulpit and he had a few pet words that he had pronounced incorrectly. He was no pet of mine, but he seemed rather a decent scout and I felt sorry for him. People mocked him behind his back, and the very ones who told him his sermons were great stuff would mimic his little pulpit tricks and make fun of his pronunciation. It always makes my flesh crawl to see anybody unconsciously making an ass of himself. His innocent dignity and self-satisfaction seem so darned pitiful when onlookers are secretly snickering up their sleeves. And so I decided that decent sportsm[illegible] required telling the preacher the little faults that made [illegible]culе him. Of course you [illegible]at happened. He wouldn't k[illegible] that anybody except me saw anything ridiculous in his mannerisms. He insisted that his pronunciation was perfect. And he thought me a darned good knocker. I sneaked off with my tail between my legs, but the experience wasn't without value. It taught me to let people fry in their own fat. I never was much of a hand to correct people, anyway. When I hear acquaintances pronouncing words some ridiculous way or solemnly stating as fact something that is opposite to the truth or relating some incident with all of the unimportant details wrong, I never feel any urge to butt in and correct them. It's their funeral, not mine. I wasn't sent down here to set the world right. The other fellow's way of life doesn't trouble me so long as it suits him. All I ask of him is to let me alone as I let him alone. When I indulge myself in criticism, it is because of my helpful-Hannah complex. I am trying to be of service. And because it is a thankless job, I've got to think a whole lot of a fellow before I risk telling him his pants are unbuttoned. You are safe in telling a man what is wrong if he is an humble fellow or a great one, but Heaven pity you when you try to be of service to some swell-headed chap who thinks he hasn't any faults. Unless you are willing to take an occasional kick in the pants for the sake of being a good Samaritan, the better plan is to keep quiet and let the important gentleman with egg on his chin discover it for himself.

United States Supreme Court Decision On Minnesota "Press Gag" Law Is Studied In Light Of History And Modern Conditions

Both past and present day conditions are found by the public to give force and importance to the decision of the United States Supreme Court that the Minnesota law subjecting the press to judicial censorship is unconstitutional. It is held that if such laws were sustained, all liberty would suffer and political tyranny would be upheld. The measure under discussion was invoked against a paper which was charged with being a "scandal sheet" in its attacks on public officials.

"What the Minnesota Legislature of 1925 attempted to do," says the ST. PAUL PIONEER PRESS, "was to institute a censorship of the press, for the purpose of puting the so-called scandal sheets out of business. With this motive few persons have seriously quarreled, but the real test of great and fundamental principle arises, not in respect to the obvious cases, but when the time comes for their application in defense of the most unsatisfactory claimants of right. If the plain language of the constitution does not mean anything even for the evil-tongued scandal sheets, then freedom of press and opinion in America is non-existent and there is not a newspaper or organ of public information in the country that is safe from the interference of unworthy, self-interested public officials."

"While the reactionaries devised and enacted the gag law," according to the CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE, "it was the radicals, come into power, that used it to suppress the Saturday Press for exposing the corruption of the police under radical rule and forcing the dismissal of the chief of police. Had not both supported it, it could not have been sold, we are confident, to the people of Minnesota or that of any other free and intelligent community. No inkling of this background of the gag law will be found in the dissenting opinion. On the contrary, its implication is, as we have said, that there was involved only the suppression of an abuse of press freedom. But the Saturday Press was not suppressed for not telling the truth. It was suppressed because it was telling altogether too much of it. It was not suppressed because it was scurrilous, recklessly defamatory, abusive, and incendiary, but because, whatever the character or motives of its editor, it was giving publicity to conditions which political profiteers and corruptionists could not afford to permit the public to realize."

"Arbitrary official power to suppress publication," states the SAN ANTONIO EXPRESS, "is unquestionably foreign to free government. A 'scandal sheet' may be a nuisance; mud-slinging and character-assassination may work great harm--but in such circumstances the libel laws offer redress. It is better even to tolerate those abuses than to risk the far greater evils inherent in governmental control over the press, for in that direction lies eventual enslavement."

"An important declaration of constitutional principle" is seen by the PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER, while the ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH maintains that "the libel laws already provide punishment for untruthful, malicious and scandalous charges, and they constitute a sufficient curb on journalistic freedom." The CLEVELAND NEWS points out that the decision is "a blow to censorship, advocated with more or less insistence since the World War," and feels that it "will go down in history as a great document in defense of freedom and of the press."

"With such law in New York," suggests the SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE, "Boss Tweed could have put the New York Times out of business, suppressed Harper's Weekly with the famous Nast cartoons and continued Tammany's orgy of corruption. The principle of the Minnesota law would give immunity from exposure to any ring that happened to control a judge. Those who fought the Minnesota law to its extinction by the United States Supreme Court held that the character of the publications to be suppressed by court order was entirely beside the question. If the life of one newspaper depended on the pleasure of a judge and his relations with a political ring the life of any would hang by the same thread and there would be the end of the cherished and necessary freedom of press. Wherever the Minnesota principle was adopted newspapers would be at the mercy of a power as great as that which Mussolini uses to suppress all criticism of his rule."

"If such a law were valid," avers the MILWAUKEE SENTINEL, "the American press would become the supine mouthpiece of the political faction in power, as servile a thing as the Fascist press of Dictator Mussolini."

In commendation of the decision, the PITTSBURGH POST-GAZETTE points out that the press of today is engaged in "constant warfare against political corruption, official grafting and racketeering." The RALEIGH NEWS AND OBSERVER holds that "the press has no valid claim to freedom unless it is vigilant for clean and righteous government."

"A pernicious shaft, aimed at one of the roots of American liberty," declares the ALBANY EVENING NEWS, "has been happily deflected by the Supreme Court of the United States, in its decision against the so-called Minnesota 'gag law.' The right of the people, and so of the press, to express themselves on problems of public policy has been preserved intact. The one great means permitting men and women to criticize their government and their officials, constructively or destructively as the conditions merit, and allowing public-spirited newspapers or magazines to expose actual or alleged malfeasance in office, is thus successfully championd."

The BUFFALO EVENING NEWS is convinced that "the law would be a sword hanging over the heads of editors," while the WORCESTER TELEGRAM holds that "freedom of the press is equivalent to freedom of speech." The CHARLESTON (S. C.) NEWS AND COURIER, in the course of a discussion of the effect of the decision, adds that "an unpleasant condition remains unremedied," and argues: "That the 'nuisance press' cannot be abated by law does not preclude the finding of legislative ways through which the appearance of the nuisances may be made difficult. The decision does not say that prevention is impossible, however it stands in the way of abatement. The licensing of newspapers and newspaper men may be practicable. It is required for lawyers and doctors."

THE VILLA CAVERN

Villa was the Bad Man from Mexico. Not for a moment would I even suggest that Villa was the only bad man from Mexico, that Nation is crowded with them but you can spell it with capital letters when you refer to Villa. He was a dare devil of the first magnitude. He shot up Columbus, he did the same thing to Douglass and he made things very unpleasant at Nogales. Even Pershing and all his men never caught up with him. Perhaps he is dead but there is no convincing proof of it.

At Nogales, Mexico, there is a huge cavern hewn out of the solid rock mountain. It was at one time used as the city jail and tradition says it was there that Villa hid his money, the money he received from the cattle he stole and the profit from everything else he appropriated to his own use whether he took it from Mexico or citizens of the United States. If any such gold was hidden in that cave by Villa it is not there now in all probability.

The cave is now a wonderful cafe, known as the "Cavern Cafe" and if any motorist wishes to have a surprise party by way of entertaining food and drink and is willing to travel seventy miles and back again to have it, I recommend the "Cavern Cafe," Nogales, Mexico.

CAESAR'S IDEA

Old Caesar said that thinking men are dangerous to peace.
They like to toil with thoughts at night when all the noises cease
They peddle strange ideas round about the neighborhood,
And they stir up endless trouble,
which a dumbbell never would.

"Let me have men about me who are fat" old Caesar said.
"The comfortable fellows who can sleep when they're in bed;
I don't like lean and hungry men, who keep themselves in touch
With everything that's going on, because they think too much."

I think I know what Caesar meant
The thinker speaks his mind.
And he would break with customs old if better he could find.
But comfortable followers are those who, right or wrong,
Smile smugly on their leader and say, "Yes, sir," all day long.

Hope To Quell Attack On Jail To Free Miners

ATTEMPT MADE TO GET MINERS OUT

(International News Service)

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., June 12.—Reinforcements and a new supply of tear bombs were rushed here today to quell a second attack on the Belmont county jail where 11 striking coal miners are held.

Two thousand men and women stormed the jail last night in an effort to force the release of the miners, arrested during recent disorders at the New Lafferty mine of the M. A. Hanna Coal company.

Sheriff Howard Duff, 40 sheriff's deputies and several American Legion members, armed with tear gas bombs and machine guns, drove the crowd back. Leo Thompson of Pittsburgh, leader of the national miners' union, and said to have led the jail attack, was arrested.

Send For Bombs.

Sheriff Duff sent for aid and more bombs after the leaders of the rushing crowd said they would return to the jail today in an effort to release the prisoners.

Duff was struck during a fight which climaxed in Thompson's arrest. Seven women and several men were overcome when a gas bomb was exploded by a deputy sheriff.

Starts Third Term In Jail

Worthless Check Passers Now Passes From Jail To Jail

SUNBURY, Pa., June 12.—George Hutchinson, Williamsport, recently started his third term in a different county jail.

Hutchinson was wanted in several counties on charges of passing bad checks.

He was tried in McKean county and sent to the jail at Smethport there with detainers from Lycoming and Northumberland counties lodged against him.

On completing the McKean sentence, he was taken immediately to the Lycoming county jail at Williamsport to serve time there. That term was recently completed and on his release he found Northumberland officers waiting for him to place him in the jail here for a two to five-year term.

About nine per cent of human beings are left-handed.

Chinese Girl In U. S. College Has Treasured Coat

(International News Service)

DENVER, Col., June 12.—An ancient Chinese coat, hand woven, of finest silk, about which an ancient legend of the Orient has been drawn, is owned by Frances Chin, sophomore at Colorado Woman's college here.

Miss Chin has never seen the land of her forefathers, from which the coat was brought by an aunt. The coat is more than 300 years old and has been handed down to the youngest girl in each generation.

According to the legend, the first Tartar emperor gave the original costume, of which Miss Chin's coat is successor, to one of his three daughters. The one it fitted best was to become the next empress of China.

The coat fitted the youngest, Bow Chin. When it became time for her, as empress to choose a husband, she made an embroidered ball. Whoever picked up the ball after the empress threw it was to become emperor.

Shent Ping Wong, a beggar boy, picked up the ball and became emperor of the Tartars and sovereign of the kingdoms of China.

The legend is still presented on the Chinese stage.

The coat was first brought to this country in 1905.

Oil Free Roads On Week-Ends Is Order

HARRISBURG, June 12.—Week end motorists are promised roads free of resh oil under an o.der issued by Secretary of Highways Lewis, who directed maintenance forces to stop work early on Saturdays. A special effort was made to complete routine spring work to meet the heavy traffic season. Painting, grass cutting and marking were on the priority list for early completion.

Cavalry Thunders for War Secretary

There is always something that stirs the blood in the movement of cavalry, something of the romance and glamor reminiscent of the days when "knighthood was in flower." But there is something pathetic as well as magnificent in the picture above. It shows troops of the First Cavalry in brave array on the plain in front of Fort Bliss, Texas, when they were inspected by Secretary of War Patrick J. Hurley. There is some talk of throwing cavalry into the discard as an obsolete weapon of warfare and of closing up some of the pictureesque old forts that served their purpose when our empire builders looked to them as their only sanctuary in the days when the "first American" practiced the outdoor sport of scalp-lifting. Photo at left shows Hurley with officers of Fort Bliss reviewing the parade and top panel presents the cavalry in a gallant effort to justify its existence.

Begin Treatment Of 120 Children For Tuberculosis

HARRISBURG, June 12.—Secretary of Health, Dr. Theodore B. Appel, announced today that the first group of children to receive treatment during the summer months at Mont Alto Sanatorium has arrived. Eighty boys and forty girls from the eastern and central portions of the State make up the group. This number will be augmented with twenty-five additional within the next few days.

Commenting on this work, Dr. R. H. McCutcheon, medical director of the sanatorium today said: "The annual summer camp for undernourished children is again under way. The boys representing this group are sent from the various clinics and frequently are contact cases. In other words, they belong to families where active tuberculosis exists. While the majority of them are predisposed toward tuberculosis because of improper physical conditions, a number of them will upon examination show active tuberculosis. The work is largely preventive, nevertheless.

MRS. D. R. BOLLARD RECEIVES CIRCLE

The home of Mrs. D. R. Bollard, King avenue, was transformed into a beautiful flower garden Thursday by the baskets, bowls and vases of beautiful peonies, roses and other summer flowers in all their hues, when she received 46 members of the Stephenson Circle of the First Methodist church for the regular monthly session.

Mrs. S. E. Crawford, president, was in charge of the business session and Miss BeaulahMagruder led the devotional opening.

Business of a routine nature filled the business hours and at the close of this a time of sociability was enjoyed.

Mrs. Ira Campbell and her group: Mrs. Charles S. Rowland, Mrs. T. A. Preston, Mrs. Frank McArthur, Mrs. Earl F. Chaffee and Mrs. K. Cotton took charge of the refreshment period and served a delicious tray lunch, carrying out a color scheme in keeping with the shades of the flowers.

Spaghetti Supper

A most delightful meeting of the L. L. O. I. 129 was held Thursday evening in the Clendennin Hall with Mrs. Margaret Shaver presiding.

Members from Lodge 24 were special guests and at the close of the business session a period of bingo was enjoyed with Mrs. H. Pence W. Marsh and Mrs. A. Guthrie winning the prizes.

Mrs. Belle Hopwood and her committee then called the members and guests to the dining room where a most tempting spaghetti supper was served.

June 25 the lodge is planning for a celebration of their fifth anniversary and they will have members of Lodges 24 and 200 as guests at a tureen dinner and a special program will be presented.

O. U. Girls

Members of the O. U. Girls of the Central Presbyterian church were entertained Thursday evening for the regular session in the home of Mrs. Helen Hart Miller, Conkle avenue, with Mrs. Mildred Campbell presiding.

Miss Ethel Douglass gave an interesting talk on the home topic and Mrs. Margaret McKee the foreign.

Plans were discussed for holding a picnic in July instead of the regular business session. Mrs. Louis Rudesill and Miss Beahm were special guests.

A social period closed the evening with the hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Louis Rudesill, serving refreshments.

Party for Son

Mrs. Gertrude Miller entertained 15 little girls and boys in her home on East Washington street Monday evening, June 8th, in honor of the fourth birthday of her son, Bobby. The home was beautifully decorated throughout with roses and peonies. Indoor games, which were greatly enjoyed by the children, composed the evening's divertisement. The honor guest was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts from his little friends.

Later in the evening a pleasing repast was served by the hostess, who had as her aides Mrs. Joseph Dietrich and Mrs. Lee O'Rourke.

Virginia Boyer Society

Miss Virginia Woods was hostess to tthe members of the Virginia Boyer missionary society of the Bethany Lutheran church in the parsonage Thursday evening, with Mrs. Bertha Campbell presiding.

This was the last meeting of the summer season and matters of a routine nature were discussed, with plans for a picnic in the offing.

A social period with a tempting lunch brought the evening to a close.

DINNER HONORS STUDENT NURSES

A delightful social event of Wednesday evening took place at the home of Mrs. Wilbur S. Miller of Edenburg when she entertained a gathering of young folks in her home to honor her sister, Miss Lenore Smith, and Miss Catherine Uber, both student nurses of the Jameson Memorial hospital who will leave Saturday to continue their training at the Cook County hospital at Chicago, Illinois.

A very delicious menu was served at the large table which was prettily decorated in the season's tones centered with a bouquet of Siberian iris and pink roses. Vases of the same were placed about the rooms adding to the attractiveness of the setting.

The remaining hours were pleasantly whiled away with bridge.

Ve-Ri-Ga Bridge Club

The Ve-Ri-Ga Bridge Club entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Raymond G. McCartney on West Sheridan avenue, and as a special guest, the ladies had Mrs. Rollin McNutt.

A game of cards was contested in during the early hours, with Mrs. Freda Solomon and Mrs. Edward Frey being successful in winning honors. Later lunch was served by the hostess. Bowls of red and white roses centered the tables where the tasty menu was served.

In two weeks the club will meet again, the place to be announced later.

T. A. B. Club

Mrs. Frank Cray of Winslow avenue received the T. A. B. Club members in her home Thursday afternoon for a 1:30 o'clock luncheon. The menu was served at a table prettily decorated in the seasons tones, with covers marking for eight guests.

Bridge filled in the remaining hours, and at the close of play prizes were awarded to Mrs. Charles Freeman and Mrs. Fred DeJane.

In two weeks Mrs Freeman of Fairmont avenue will be club hostess.

Sabbath School Reunion

The sixth annual reunion of the Portersville Sabbath school of 1900 will be held at the Portersville United Presbyterian church on Thursday, June 18. This will also mark home coming day, and it is desired all those who have relatives or friends buried in this cemetery, be present to participate at the activities planned on this date.

Those planning to attend will bring their own provisions.

Return From Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fervor, Sheridan avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haus, Hillcrest avenue have returned from Youngstown, Ohio, where they attended the funeral service of Mrs. Charles Merrill, aged 97, grandmother of Mrs. Haus.

Mrs. Merrill was a member of a pioneer family of Trumball county, Ohio. Interment was made at Bristol.

Five W Club

Members of the Five W. Club enjoyed a delicious picnic supper at Cascade Park Thursday evening with 12 places arranged at a prettily appointed table in the grove.

After dinner the amusements of the park were enjoyed and the girls planned on holding another picnic on July 9.

Open Door Class

The members of the Open Door class of the Third United Presbyterian church met Thursday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Tribby, East Washington street.

Harry Beighley, president of the class, was in charge of a short business session, when plans were made for a picnic on June 25.

Music and games under the direction of Mrs. Harry Beighley filled in the after-business hours and a delicious lunch, served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Clare Lutz, brought the evening to a close.

July 9 will mark the date of the next regular meeting.

T. E. K. Club

Members of the T. E. K. Club were entertained Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Ralph Hawk, Sycamore street, with fancy work and music as the afternoon's diversions.

The club prize was awarded Mrs. Herman Braatz and Mrs. Clyde Furlong was received as a new member.

Plans were made for the meeting on June 24 in the home of Mrs. Edward Cursakey, Pennsylvania avenue.

Ever Ready Class

Miss Catherine Mayberry, East Brook road, received the members of the Ever Ready class of the First Methodist church in her home Thursday evening for a social time.

Games and music proved delightful diversions and plans were promulgated for a picnic to take the place of the July meeting.

The hostess served the members with a most tempting lunch before they departed for their homes.

Receives Degree

Dr. George S. Jenkins of this city received his D. D. S. Degree at the commencement exercises held at the University of Pittsburgh Wednesday. He is a graduate of the New Castle Senior High school, and also attended Westminster College.

Miss Helen Cromie of Franklin avenue and Thomas Jenkins of this city, were among those who attended the exercises Wednesday.

Reunion Date Set

The annual reunion of the descendants of John and Mary Smith McKnight will be held on Thursday, June 18, at the East Brook United Presbyterian church.

T. B. L. Club

Members of the T. B. L. Club will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin at Lakewood on Friday night, June 19.

Shenango Township P.T.A. Will Meet

Senator G. T. Weingartner Will Be The Speaker Monday Evening In School

The Shenango township Parent-Teacher association has called a special meeting for Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Shenango high school at which time Senator George T. Weingartner will be the guest speaker.

In addition to hearing Senator Weingartner there will be a business session to hear the reports from the two banquets given by the association and the new committees will be named.

A splendid program of readings and music has been prepared by the various members.

The Moravia P. T. A. will present a play, "The Poor Married Man", in the Shenango high school on the evening of Friday, June 19.

This evening the executive board of Shenango P. T. A. will meet for the purpose of naming the new committees for next year.

Damages Asked In School Bus Case

Pauline Rushel, by her father, Frank Rushel, has filed a suit at the prothonotary's office against W. W. Smeal, trading as the Mahoning Auto company, in which $300 is asked for injuries sustained by Pauline, as the result of a school bus accident. The school bus, driven by R. W. Barris, was attempting to pass a truck on the Mt. Jackson road when it was overturned in the ditch. Several other suits have been filed as the result of the same accident.

State Educators Discuss Program For Improvement

Remedies Planned For Four Major Phases Of Educational Work

SURVEY COMMITTEE IS HARD AT WORK

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, June 12.—Planning remedies for four major phases of education work believed needful of reorganization in Pennsylvania, 25 prominent educators of the state under the direction of Superintendent of Public Instruction James N. Rule today set in motion a survey of educational facilities with a view toward formulating a 10-year program of improvement.

The education survey committee, at a meeting here, decided to make a preliminary survey at the education congress here next fall. Meantime four major topics will be considered and discussed. They are:

Urgent need of a financial program which will insure sufficient state appropriations to school district.

Necessity of a systematic study of the problem of teacher supply and demand.

Necessity for a thorough codification of school laws.

Improvement of "glaring inequalities" of opportunities" and educational handicaps of rural children.

Dr. Rule will act as director of the survey, assisted by Dr. W. W. Defenbaugh of the United States education commission. Work committees, named from the advisory committee of 25, will consider among other things, elementary education, higher education, continuing education, vocational education, use of radio and other sensory aids in teaching, library service, health instruction, guidance of home and school relations and school housing and equipment.

Pinchot Signs Nine Measures

Two Are Vetoed By Governor Pinchot At Harrisburg

BRANDT BILL DISAPPROVED

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, June 12.—Governor Gifford Pinchot Thursday vetoed two bills and approved nine other minor measures.

One of the bills vetoed, sponsored by Senator Herman P. Brandt, Allegheny, would have relieved those in charge of parades or funeral processions from liability for damage suits following accidents. The governor in his veto message said "There is no good reason" why such persons should be relieved from the ordinary liability existing in other cases.

A proposal to amend the school code which duplicated a section of a bill already approved also was vetoed. It was sponsored by Senator George T. Weingartner, Lawrence.

Bills approved included the Pethick Senate measure which will give the State Board of Undertakers wider powers in the revocation of licenses for unethical practice of practioners and the Macelwee House Bill which permits owners of improved land to impound trespassing cattle.

Program For Encampment Of Vets Complete

Pennsylvania Department Convention Will Be Held Next Week At Conneaut Lake

CONNEAUT LAKE PARK, June 12—Aaron R. Gardner of Williamsport, department commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States: C. A. Gnau of Harrisburg, department adjutant: Mrs. Ida May Stanford of Pittsburgh, president of the V. F. W. Auxiliary and Mrs. Genevieve Schaff of Pittsburgh, Auxiliary secretary, met here this week and completed arrangements for the state encampment to be held at Conneaut Lake Park June 18, 19 and 20.

The convention will open in joint session at 9:30 a. m., Thursday, June 18, when District Attorney Stuart Culbertson of Meadville, will give the address of welcome, with responses given by Commander Gardner and Mrs. Stanford. At 1:30 p. m. in joint session, U. S. Senator James J. Davis will speak. He will be introduced by Past Commander Robert Woodside, county controller of Allegheny County. This meeting is open to the public. After Davis' address there will be a short business session and the announcement of committees by Commander Gardner and Mrs. Stanford. A vaudeville show will be given at 8:30 p. m. in the mammoth Temple of Music.

On Friday, June 19, business sessions will be held at 9 a. m. and 1:30 p. m., the V. F. W. to convene in the Crystal ballroom of Hotel Conneaut and the Auxiliaries in the Oriental Gardens. # Disabled Vets To Select Two State Delegates

Will Attend State Convention To Be Held At Wilkes-Barre This Month

Fred L. Rentz post of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War will select delegates to the state convention to be held in Wilkes-Barre the latter part of June at the next regular meeting of the post in its hall in the Sons of Union Veterans hall, city building, Thursday, June 18. The local post is entitled to two delegates to the state convention and it is hoped to have a good attendance of the members to act in this and other important matters.

According to an announcement received from Harrisburg by the officers of the local post, a new state commander of the organization was selected at the meeting of the state executive committee held in that city on June 9. All the other state officers were re-elected.

The new state commander is Captain Roy R. Kreichbaum of Chambersburg. The other officers, all of whom were re-elected, were Samuel M. Lunine, Reading, department senior vice-commander; Fred A. Wellwood, York, department junior vice-commander; Ervin Raschk, Philadelphia, treasurer; Jack Carroll, Pittsburgh, department judge advocate; Dr. M. A. Wolfenson, Altoona, chairman state hospitalization committee; James C. Tate, Bethlehem, officer of the day; Ray L. Stein, Allentown, sergeant-at-arms; Joseph J. Fiedler, Harrisburg, department adjutant and legislative chairman.

CHURCH SERVICES

Services on Sunday June 14th will be held at the regular hours. Church school at 10 a. m. Morning worship at 11:00 a. m. At this service the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed.

Church school and official boards will meet immediately following the morning service.

At 8 o'clock a service of interest will be held when certificates will be given to those who successfully passed the course in Teacher Training recently conducted by the Church school. The sermon for the evening will be on the theme, "The Responsibility of Leadership."

SAVANNAH NOTES

William Leight of Akron is spending several days at the home of his brother, Warren Leight.

Mrs. W. H. Weinschenk is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cobau of Moody avenue.

Mrs. John C. Reed of the Old Pittsburgh road ,entertained Mrs. F. A. Childs and children and Mrs. L. H. Scheidemantle in her home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wright and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Wright's sister in Sharon.

Rev. and Mrs. V. L. Bloomquist and family and Miss Helen Booher called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Guy, Ellwood City, Monday afternoon.

Some of the men of the Methodist church have been repairing the brick work at the front of the church. This was a much needed repair. Next Wednesday evening, previous to the prayer meeting, a general work meeting is called. At this time the grass on the property around the church will be cut, flower beds fixed for the summer, and the grounds generally improved.

Last Tuesday evening the Standard Bearers met at the home of Miss Ruth Weinschenk. Eleven members of the society were present. Miss Bertha Badger, the president of the society, and Miss Francis Reno were elected to attend the camp at Cherry Run, the latter part of the month. The girls decided to have a hike at the time of the next meeting, details of which will be announced later.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church all day Thursday, June 18th. Dinner will be served at noon and the business meeting will be held at 2 o'clock.

Friday evening, June 19th, there will be a meeting of the Brotherhood and also a meeting of the Missionary society at the M. E. church at 8 o'clock. Interesting programs are being prepared.

IN WAR PRISON 13 YEARS

(International News Service)

BRESLAU, June 12—Thirteen years after the close of the great war, Karl Knappe, German war prisoner, has just arrived from Siberia at his home village, Hain, Silesia. Knappe was sentenced to hard labor for a "disciplinary offense" and had to work in a mine. He brought with him letters from two fellow prisoners, whose sentences were soon to expire, to their relatives in Salzburg, Australia, and Hohenelbe, Czechoslovkia, but the letters were seized at the border by the Russians.

Slain New York Woman Had Many Male Admirers

Investigators Find That Late Starr Faithfull Knew Many Rich Men

STEAMER CAPTAIN MAKES STATEMENT

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, June 12.—"There were several persons in the life of Starr Faithful who would have been happier if she were dead."

This cryptic statement by District Attorney Elvin Edwards Thursday accompanied the intensive examination of the personal diary of the young Greenwich Village beauty, whose murdered body was found on the silent sands of Long Beach, Long Island.

The contents of the leather-bound book with the silver clasps in which the slain girl recorded her innermost thoughts was expected by authorities to solve New York's most vivid murder in a decade.

Knew Many Men

There are many names in the little book which 25-year-old Starr thought nobody would ever see. Most of those names are of men, for Starr knew many men. How prominent they were is a matter of waiting for 24 hours to pass.

"But there were rich men and no beggar men or thieves," said one detective Thursday.

Captain Makes Statement

Liverpool, Eng., June 12.—Captain Irving of the Cunard Liner Franconia Thursday gave to International News Service an account of how Miss Starr Faithfull was returned to shore from the Franconia, outward bound, on May 29, when she missed the final "all visitors ashore" call.

Miss Faithfull boarded my ship as a visitor, together with many other people," Captain Irving said. "After the gangway had been withdrawn and the ship was in midstream it was reported to me on the bridge that there was a woman visitor still aboard.

"As it was impossible to return to the landing stage, I hailed a tug, into which the young woman was lowered.

"She seemed to have many friends aboard, and was in a most jovial mood when she was lowered away."

Predict Brilliant Future For Werner Janseew Studying In Rome

(International News Service)

ROME, June 12.—The most enthusiastic praise ever drawn by American music from the very different Roman critics has been bestowed on "American Kaleidoscope," on the occasion of its very fine execution at the "Accademia Filarmonica" here by the Rome Quartet. Werner Janssen, of Cleveland, Ohio, has been hailed as "an artist of rare talent, and superior ability," "a musician exceedingly rich in temperament and sensibility."

The critics who very frequently reproached American composers for their too strict imitation of European composers, have been pleased in discovering in Werner Janssen "an hundred per cent American" and they say "American Kaleidoscope" could be their fore-runner of a series of remarkable and original compositions.

Janssen is attached to the Rome American Academy, where he enjoys a music scholarship. In the opinion of the Rome critics he embodies the best promise American music has to give.

Intelligent Direction Accounted For Success Of Army Air Display

So Say Experts In Analyzing Gigantic Demonstration Of 659 Planes Which Flew Without Single Serious Accident

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Army aviation headquarters realizes now that it erred in making it publicity, preceding the recent air maneuvers, quite as blood-curdling as it did.

Carried away by professional enthusiasm, officers of the flying corps admit their failure to take into consideration the likelihood that many groundlings would sense considerable danger in the affair, not only to the aviators, but to themselves, too, from the zooming and zipping of hundreds of planes all at once, right overhead.

Reckoning that the public would welcome the event as the greatest show of its kind in history, and anxious to make the maximum impression with it, war department press agent drew on their descriptive powers to the limit. Presently, to their astonishment, they found themselves with a rapidly-developing sentiment of opposition on their hands. It never wore off while the maneuvers lasted.

There was not a fatality from start to finish, either—or even a serious accident.

From a pacifist's standpoint, maybe it was very painful, in its militaristic aspect, but technically it was a wonderful performance—as much of a surprise to veteran flyers as to ordinary folk.

So large a number of planes—at the outset 659—never was assembled under a single command before.

And not a man killed!

Of the three who suffered injuries, none was badly hurt. Moreover, out of this trio, only two met their mishaps while the maneuvers were going on, the third, a national guardsman, having encountered his accident in landing, after being dismissed, while on his way home.

Experts give the chief credit for the maneuvers' success, with no record whatever of lost lives or broken bones, to strict, highly intelligent flight supervision.

The thoroughness of United States army training is mentioned as an additional important reason for the efficiency of American aviators in the intricacies of formation operations—an efficiency born of fully twice as much time spent in the air as is required of any other nation's military flying men.

Finally, sound army planes get a tribute.

Of the 659 with which the maneuvers started, 641 were still in at the finish. Only two of the total number were put permanently out of commission; five required major repairs; eleven, for various causes, were returned to their home stations, but were able to leave under their own power.

"Ours are not as fast as some of Europe's," as one pilot put it, "but they stand wear and tear."

The maneuvers represented 315,000 aircraft hours.

Seven hundred and twenty pilots and 644 enlisten men took part in them, plus enough miscellaneous civilians to bring the total up to about 1,400.

And but three casualties!—not bad ones.

Can commercial aviation equal it?

"No, probably not," an expert army authority told me, "but neither can any other country's military aviation service. At France's last important maneuvers 345 planes were assembled, as against our 659, and eight Frenchmen were killed, not to mention many more or less serious additional casualties."

"For that matter," continued this authority, "even the United States army air corps could hardly employ so many planes and so many men for so many hours without more crashes minus the constant supervision which characterized our latest performance.

"As for commercial flights, they frequently are over strange routes, with descents on strange landing fields.

"And mail pilots are bound by schedules; hence must risk bad weather.

"Commercial planes, too, must be built to carry pay loads, which the army's need not allow for. Thus the latter can be, and are, heavier, and weight and strength go together."

"Still," said the aviator, "army air maneuvers mean formation flying which is extra hazardous.

"And out of 1,400 we din't kill a man.

MONUMENT TO ROOSEVELT TO BE DEDICATED

Memorial Will Be Erected At Marias Pass, Montana

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The monument to be erected on the Theodore Roosevelt international highway at Marias Pass, Mont., in memory of Theodore Roosevelt probably will be dedicated this summer, the forest service of the department of forest service has just announced. The announcement follows:

Final plans for the Roosevelt memorial obelisk to be erected on the Theodore Roosevelt international highway at the boundary between the Lewis and Clark and the Flathead national forests, at Marias Pass, Mont., have been received by the forest service of the department of Agriculture, and early construction is assured by instructions from Chief Forester R. Y. Stuart to forest service officers in the northern Rocky mountain region. The monument was authorized by act of Congress last year.

Star Lore

A MOST UNUSUAL STAR IN THE SWAN

By Arthur DeV. Carpenter

Throughout the summer a bright star adorns the evening sky in constellation Cygnus (Swan) in the Milky Way. We refer to Deneb in the tail of the Swan. Though of first magnitude, it is so remote that its actual distance is not definitely known. It is at least 652 light years (A light year is six trillion miles). Computed at that distance its brightness would be 10,470 times that of the sun. The nearer stars show noticeable change of position on the celestial sphere. But Deneb's position does not. This fact shows that its remoteness must be very great. All enthusiastic star gazers will locate this fascinating star. It is white.

There is a growing belief among capitalists that Government should own all public utilities that don't pay.

NEW YORK, June 12.—A local scientist tells us that executives who spend most of their time in "conferences" and "important meetings" suffer from business monoxide.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Another attempt is under way to change the name of the Bowery. About forty years ago the same thing was tried by social workers with the backing of several leading business men; but widespread opposition ended the life of the proposal.

Another effort was made ten years later but again failed. "I'd as soon think of supporting a proposition to blow up the Battery," said an alderman from the district.

In 1910 another attempt by social workers and business men was met with a blast of disapproval from "Big Tim" Sullivan, the political leader of the district.

"Only over my dead body," he declared. "As long as I live the Bowery will be the Bowery. The name was good enough for us when we were boys down here and it will have to be good enough for those who are here now."

The last abortive attempt was made fifteen years ago. Manufacturers and wholesalers say they find it difficult to merchandise products bearing a Bowery address.

DA CAPO.

Of every hundred pianos purchased in New York 28 are returned. More pianos are sent back by customers than any other kind of merchandise. This seems remarkable when the bulk of the instruments is taken into consideration, and the fact that instruments of that sort are not bought on the spur of the moment.

After pianos the next highest in the list of goods returned are Oriental rugs. Furs come third.

CARAVANSARY AMNESIA.

The average large hotel in New York salvages approximately 300 articles a week left behind by departing guests.

It's the men who forget as a rule. The traveling male, it has been found, with no woman to pick up after him, is subject to the most frequent and astonishing lapses of memory when it comes to rounding up all the trappings with which he arrived.

Women seldom forget things but when they do it is usually in the grand manner. They will clear the bathroom cabinet of all powder, rouge, and toilet articles but leave a fur coat hanging in the closet or a string of pearls tucked away in the drawer of the dressing table.

Men, on the other hand, leave during the month, enough shaving gear to equip a fair-sized drug counter. It is always the "favorite" razor strop or shaving brush or razor and they are almost always sure to write or telephone that it be mailed to them.

GROUCH AND CURE.

Science has been devoting time and attention to The Missus's evening grouch and after mature consideration has arrived at the definite conclusion that it's due to "tired feet."

"Husbands don't realize that their wives bump around over hard floors," the scientists point out, "from three to eight miles a day in the performance of ordinary household tasks. This results in fatigue that brings the zero hour of a wife's resistance around 4 p. m., just around the time she has to begin thinking about dinner.

The antidote is as ingenious as the diagnosis.

"Give Mom a big back yard," say the docs, "full of springy turf, where she can romp around every afternoon, weather permitting, in her bare feet. The resiliency of exercise for the feet on a grassy plot has a wonderfully tonic effect on the nerves."

ADD PET NAMES.

The term "moron," hurled to convey the impression that a person has not grown up, emotionally, has given way to the smarter term, "infantile adult."

Now watch out for Sophomoron—a good, safe expression of insult, as flattering to the ego of the user as either of the other two.

(International News Service)

SANTE FE, N. M., June 12—Ed Sweet of Curry county, New Mexico, likes Warden Ed Swoope's "Big House" so well he has decided to stay a while.

Sweet recently arrived at the state penitentiary and asked to be shown through it. He paid the usual 25 cents visitor's fee tipped the guard another 25 cents and looked over the prison from cellar to attic.

Then he asked to see the warden.

"What do you think of it?" the warden asked.

"Pretty nice place," Sweet answered. "I believe I'll stay."

He drew out a paper from an inner pocket of his coat. It was his committment papers. Sweet had been convicted of stealing tires. He had an appeal before the state supreme court, but said he had thought better of it after seeing the prison and decided to vacate the appeal Theand begin his sentence.

Vest Pocket Upset To Naval Parity He Says

Small German Vessles Prove As Powerful As Big Dreadnaughts

By KINGSBURY SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, June 12.—Germany's new "vest pocket" wonder cruisers make naval disarmament impossible in the opinion of Leiutenant-Commander J. M. Kenworthy, noted British naval expert and Member of Parliament.

They will, says Kenworthy in an article published in the Daily Telegraph, lead to a new and costlier era of naval competition among naval powers of the world.

"Parity between fleets now can no more be attained than between racehorses," he says.

"The Germans have shown that by spending uneconomically extremely powerful vessels can be constructed on a limited tonnage, outclassing their peers or contemporary sisters on which parity has been based.

"There seems to be an idea in some quarters that if the principal powers can agree on certain ratios or yardsticks of warship tonnage and calibres of guns the menace of competition will be removed.

"This is nonsensical. Germany's new ships prove it so.

"Under the Treaty of Versailles Germany was restricted from building armored warships with a larger displacement than 10,000 tons. It was imagined that she would only be able to build small coast defense battleships on this tonnage.

"Instead she has constructed two fighting ships capable of shooting any of the modern cruisers possessed by other powers to scrap iron and which will outclass any vessel afloat except the modern superdreadnaughts of the principal naval powers.

"She is allowed under the terms of the Treaty to construct six of these ships. The French are excited and purpose to construct battle cruisers in reply. Italy automatically demands the right to build similar vessels.

"A naval rivalry between France and Italy would compel us to use the escalator clause of the London Naval Treaty. In order to maintain parity, America would have to build if we build, and Japan would also move up into line according to her ratio."

Kenworthy concludes by saying that the only feasible method of limiting armaments would be by agreement not to spend more than a certain amount of money on them.

"Budgetary limitation, if honestly applied, would discourage the building of wonder cruisers, the creation of armies of tanks and the expansion of air forces."

Ire Aroused by War Show

Commemorating the anniversary of the battle of Jutland and rumored to be a show of force for the benefit of adjacent Poland, the massed colors shown above was part of a great military spectacle staged at Breslau, Germany, recently with the former Crown Prince in attendance. It is thought this display of force is what occasioned Foreign Minister Briand of France to declare, with frank indignation, that he finds it "difficult to continue peace efforts with Germany." Insert shows the ex-Crown Prince, at left, and General Von Mackensen, war leader, taking the salute from the goose-stepping, steel-helmeted troops.

Four years of strict discipline, hard drill and close application to studies are at an end for the 1931 graduating class at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., and with closing ceremonies and final dress parades come honors for distinquished cadets. Colonel Charles P. Echols, professor of mathematics at the academy, is shown awarding gold stars to cadets who have outranked their comrades. This honor has been given to Colonel Echols since 1898, when he first reported for duty at West Point.

Mermaids Beset By Curl Problem

(International News Service)

PARIS, June 12.—Curls are probably a crimp in swimming this summer. A great number of smart women have been going through endless trouble in order to grow their hair to a length where it can be rolled slightly up in the back in tiny curls. But this means careful attention and many visits to the hairdresers's if it is to be kept in perfect order. This roll will never survive a salt-water bath and certainly not many visits to the various swimming pools around Paris.

Will Madame return to the semi-shingle for the summer months? Some of the coiffeurs are prophesying just this very thing. Or, instead of sacrificing her little curls, will she stick to sunbathing and forego the wild waves?

MAN PAYS COSTS IN ALDERMAN'S CASE

John E. Glazier, arrested Wednesday in a house on Raymond street by constables on a charge of assault and battery and surety of the peace with a warrant sworn out last fall, obtained a hearing in Alderman Hamilton's office yesterday afternoon. The defendant, according to authorities, pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct and paid the costs after the other charges had been withdrawn.

The court placed her on probation for three years on condition that she leave the state and not return.

FIND GOLD COINS CEMENTED IN WALL

(International News Service)

MARBURG, Jugoslavia, June 12.—One of the rarest treasure-troves of recent times was discovered by workmen tearing down an ancient house here. The treasure consisted of several hundred ancient Carthagenian gold coins put away in a pot and cemeted into a wall. Archaeologists believe the coins were brought here by Hanibal, the Carthagenian general, when he and his army crossed the Alps during the second Punic war in the second or third century B. C.

MONONGAHEA, Pa., June 12.—School children here are getting an extra hour for play and amusement during the summer months without fear of the curfew forestalling them.

In keeping with practice of past years, curfew hour has been set back from 9 p. m. until 10 p. m., during summer vacation.

Crossing Deaths Decrease In 1930

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, June 12.—There were fewer fatalities at grade crossings in 1930 than in any year since 1922, although there are now more than twice as many automobiles in operation as there were then, according to a report submitted by the committee on prevention of highway grade crossing accidents to the 11th annual convention of the Safety division section of the American Railway association held here.

In 1930 there were 2,020 deaths due to such accidents. This was a reduction of nearly 19 per cent compared with 1929. Eight years ago there was one grade crossing fatality for each 6,600 automobiles, but today the situation has been so improved that there is one accident to every 13,000 automobiles.

D. H. Beatty of Washington, chairman of the committee, in presenting the report said the railroads had spent $30,000,000 in 1929 eliminating grade crossings, erecting additional signs and signals, gates, automatic warnings, etc., and said the money would be well invested if the public would cooperate with the roads by exercising caution at these danger points.

For that matter, pool would be a good golf game if you'd walk around the block between shots.—The Akron Beacon Journal.

Senator James J. Davis, Considers Buying Of Home In Chester County

(International News Service)

COATESVILLE, Pa., June 12.—Purchase of a home in Chester county, near here, is being considered by U. S. Senator James J. Davis, it was reported here. According to the report, the junior senator from Pennsylvania has three places under consideration.

Senator Davis recently inspected several places in Cumberland and York counties as possible sites for a summer home for his family. According to reports, rural scenery in Chester county and its ease of access from the national capital have inclined him more favorably toward purchase of a home site in this region.

World War Veteran Has Shrapnel Taken From Gum Of Jaw

(International News Service)

MT. CARMEL, Pa., June 12.—James Haffey, of Mt. Carmel, was in the army during the World War and was struck in the shoulder by several sharpnel fragments during an engagement.

Recently, he began cutting a wisdom tooth.

"Maybe," said Haffey to himself, "I need a teething ring." But instead he went to a hospital in Philadelphia, where he works.

A doctor looked him over, then a dentist.

Rescues Pair Then Jails Them

(International News Service)

SAN RAFAEL, Cal., June 12.—A peace officer sometimes has to be a hero to do his arresting.

Two men were floundering in a skiff half filled with water off shore here.

Excited citizens notified Sheriff Walter V. Sellmer who sped to the scene.

Throwing off his coat, Sheriff Sellmer plunged in and swam to the stricken pair. Then with powerful strokes he pushed their boat ashore. As the two men stepped ashore and started to voice their gratitude, the sheriff beat them to it.

"Come with me, you two," he said. "You're going to sober up in the county jail."

They could give the sheriff no explanation of how they happened to be out in the boat.

PETROLEUM OUTPUT FALLS IN MEXICO

(International News Service)

MEXICO CITY, June 12—Petroleum production in Mexico during 1930 fell sharply below the 1929 output, according to estimates here. A total of 39,529,908 barrels were produced in 1930, a drope of 5,057,871 barrels in comparison to the 1929 output. Voluntary curtailment of output to alleviate overproduction was responsible for the decline.

Cites Points Of Real Champion

Cleveland Advertising Club Hears Talk By Expert

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND, June 12.—Champions must fit into eleven points that are well defined, as Charles W. Mears puts it, in a talk before the Cleveland Advertising Club alumni association. They are:

Everyone has a second wind if he does not become discouraged with his first attempt.

No teacher or trainer can make a champion of a pupil who has a nasty disposition.

A champion is a good plugger who can follow directions of a skilled adviser.

A champion must not under-estimate the importance of his job.

A champion knows what he wants to be and is willing to pay the price.

A champion must have a consuming desire to do one thing well.

A champion must stick to what he wants to do.

Doing hard things and doing them well distinguishes a champion from the common herd.

A zealous, consuming interest is a great producer.

The thing that wins is not to get tired and not to be satisfied to stay behind.

A man who sets the pace becomes a champion.

In his talk, Mears set up Ty Cobb, P. T. Barnum, and J. J. Corbett as typical champions who qualified under all eleven of his points.

Marysville, Ohio, Officials Hunt Young Girl Who Flees From Home

(International News Service)

MARYSVILLE, O., June 12.—Attaches at the Ohio Women's reformatory here today continued a search for Dorothy Bolding, 16, who escaped from the institution yesterday while on an errand from the main building to the kitchen.

Officials report that the girl was brought to this institution after she had caused trouble at two other reform institutions.

Teletype System Gets Wider Use

HARRISBURG, June 12.—State police report that 2878 police messages were sent over the police teletype system during May. This compares with 999 sent in May, 1930, and is an indication of the interest being aroused among law enforcement officials on behalf of this method of transmitting information, officials said.

In May, 1931, 1825 messages were broadcast to all of the 107 receiving stations in the State, compared with 628 in May, 1930. Of these messages 896 in May, 1931 were reports of stolen automobiles, against 265 in May, 1930, while the number of missing persons reported for the month totaled 145 in 1931 and but ninety-six last year.

Local messages, of interest to only a few police departments, numbered 1053 in May, 1931, as against 371 in the same month of 1930.

This comparison indicates a real advancement in police co-operation.

They were accompanied by Frank Taylor.

A pleasing innovation was the trombone solo, played by Anthony Ciazza, accompanied by Mrs. Elizabeth Flemming and Mrs. Thompson of the First Presbyterian church of Ellwood City pleased with a vocal number. The Men's Clas of the First Baptist church sang "I Need Jesus," and the Men's Class of the Highland United Presbyterian church sang, 'In the Garden."

Officers Installed

Patterson, W. M. Armstrong Jr., G. R. Allen, A. W. Leslie, G. J. O. Davidson, Scott Killdoo, W. J. Eakin, Paul Coulter, Harry W. Brown, S. H. Shaw.

Prohibition Address

President Robert M. Strickler Jr., then introduced the speaker of the evening, Rev. A. E. Driggers, who in his fiery, dynamic, southern manner, talked for an hour on "America's Greatest Problem" which he said, is Prohibition.

"Prohibition is one of the greatest pieces of legislation that was ever constructed by any government in the world," he said, 'and law enforcement is making great strides along this line today, in spite of the work of propogandists to the contrary." "If we, as a Christian people and ardent church members stand by and uphold the 18th Amendment we will come out on top. The cause has prospered and will continue to prosper."

"Prohibition is America's answer to alcoholism", he continued, "but it is just what you would expect of a progressive, long headed people, such as we have. America was the one who had the nerve to make the move of putting the nation dry. The English and the other nations involved in the great World War say what destruction was being caused by alcoholism, but were afraid to make a move to put it down, but American people took the question in hand, and the result was the 18th Amendment, which was put into the Constitution and there it will remain as long as the church and the Christian people fight against the organized liquor traffic".

"Today is better than yesterday, and tomorrow will be better than today", Rev. Driggers continued and he proceeded to give stupendous figures as to the amount of money that had been spent on life insurance, electrical equipment and other household modern equipment within the time since prohibition was made a part of the United States Constitution.

"The Anti-Prohibitionists would have us believe that half the population of the country is drunk and the other half wondering where they can get booze", he said, "but we know this is wrong. We know that prohibition is right and because it is right the church of Jesus Christ will never surrender when it comes to doing away with this part of the government's constitution. There has not been a time when the church has not hated the liquor traffic and worked against it. The church stands for the home, the family and the Bible and the liquor traffic is the cause for breaking down these institutions.

"The Anti-Prohibition forces are so vitally interested in the question —why? Because they have their money tied up in distillery stock, and where their money is there is where their interest is; it is not because they think it is right, but because they want to protect their money", he said.

"Industrial America is the proof of prohibition", he continued and proceeded to give statistics to prove his point. He lauded President Hoover for the stand he has taken on the "dry" plank.

Rev. Driggers cited the three great waves of prohibition that have swept over the United States; the one in 1850 when 13 states went dry, but this wave was lost in the Civil War, when the Internal Revenue act was enacted, which took the government into the liquor business.

In 1880 another wave swept the country, which resulted in the formation of the W. C. T. U. that women's organization, which has done such splendid work, and this program of education lasted until 1919 and until the 18th Amendment was put into the constitution, marking the last wave.

In 1897 at Oberlin, Ohio, a great institution was formed in the Anti-Saloon League and this group of workers has spent lavishly of what money they could get hold of to promote the cause of prohibition and to educate the younger generation against the return of the saloon.

"Those who started the good work of prohibition have passed on, but they have left the challenge "Carry On", and with God helping us, we will", concluded Rev. Driggers.

Awards Made

Concluding the address of the evening Mr. Strickler then called upon the Men's Bible classes, who were present in a body, to arise and it was found the Highland United Presbyterian Men's Class, which is taught by Dr. C. J. Williamson, had the largest percentage of attendance for classes numbering over 25, and to this class was presented the shield for the year.

The class under 25 present at the session was the Men's Bible class of the Pulaski Methodist Episcopal church and they had 17 out of 18 members present and for this attendance they were awarded the American flag.

Afternoon Session

The afternoon session opened at one o'clock Thursday with C. A. Martin, vice president, presiding and after the worship period the reports of the committees were handed in and approved after which Mrs. J. M. Bailey, children's superintendent of the Allegheny County Sabbath School Association gave a splendid talk on methods and plans for working with the children in the Sabbath Schools, offering some helpful suggestions to the workers assembled. Walter E. Myers, Philadelphia, general secretary of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association, gave the next address of the afternoon and his talk was an inspiration to the workers and adult members present. He told the workers that one of the greatest thing the teacher can do is to use his or her influence for the continuous, progressive development of a Christ like character in the pupils and to lead them into ability and desire to work in the church.

The teacher must also aid the younger folks to interpret life and its vocation and to lead them to a knowledge, understanding and love of the Bible.

Rev. Driggers Speaks

The address of the afternoon. "Sparks from the Adult Anvil" was delivered by Rev. A. E. Driggers, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Kittanning, whose dynamic, humorous wit intermingled with the truths of adult work in such a manner that he held his large audience spellbound from the minute he stepped upon the platform.

He pointed out that adult Bible classes have four arms of work; the arm of extension; the arm of sociability, the devotional arm and the missionary arm, and without these four principles an adult class loses all its force and instead of living in the future lives in the past.

The Sunday School adult classes, he said, were looked to as an example for the lower classes of younger ages and if the adults, as soon as the Sabbath school adjourns, takes their hats and walk out, what is to be expected from the younger ones.

Rev. Driggers said that the adult classes are the main stream to the purpose of the church, and the church is a divine institution and will outlive all man made organizations unto the end of time.

In speaking of the arms of the class he stressed the arm of extension as being one of the most important, and the spirit of extension must be firmly rooted in each and every member, if the class is to gain headway in spiritual matters.

The social arm, he said, is one that can not be neglected and stressed the smiling face as an essential in attracting persons to the class, and not only must the teacher bear a smile and a hand shake for all comers, but the group must each act in the same manner and through the arm of sociability much can be accomplished in God's kingdom; he cited the Master as a smiling sociable God, not one of forbidding mien. Along this line he appealed for sociability toward the younger classes, taking an interest in the young of the congregation, making things interesting in the church so they will not need to go other places for their sociability.

The divine arm, of course, must show the divinity of God, the divine guidance of Him through the lives of the adult class members, and thus down through the school.

The missionary arm, that one extended to help the lives of others, is one also of great importance and is not to be neglected.

"If a class has these four arms, and keeps its arms active, the class is bound to go forward ever", concluded Rev. Driggers.

Awards Made

Robert Strickler, Jr., president of the association, then called for the adult women's Bible classes to stand so that the awards of the afternoon could be made to the classes with the largest percentage of attendance.

The Y. L. B. Class of the Third United Presbyterian church had the largest percentage of attendance over 25 and was awarded the shield.

The W. C. B. class of the Wesley Methodist church won the American flag, with the largest percentage of attendance under 25.

Rev. Driggers pronounced the benediction ond there were then conferences conducted in different parts of the auditorium, with Miss Lillian E. Reed of Philadelphia, conferring with the children's workers; Miss Margaret Walker conferring with the temperance workers; Mrs. Margaret Speer Gibson meeting with the mission workers.

Walter E. Myers, the state secretary and Rev. Ross M. Haverfield, pastor of Westfield Presbyterian church, then met with the workers and conferred in adult and religious educatioin, explaining the new school standards.

Storks Flee When Marshes Are Drained

(International News Service)

STRASBOURG, June 12—Alsace, which used to be the favorite hunting-ground for the familiar stork, is now being deserted by these birds and within a few more years there will be no more nests in the chimneys.

The old couples come back regularly every spring, but the young birds hatched in Alsace prefer to go elsewhere. Formerly, the people round-about were in the habit of caring for the nests during the winter but they have abandoned that.

Much of the marshy land where the storks formerly found good food has been drained, which probably accounts for change of habitation.

Young Republicans Pledge For Hoover

Senator Simeon Fess, Ohio, Lines Up Young Republicans For Hoover

Hoover's Leadership And Defense Of Tariff Bill Will Be Upheld

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Young Republicans of the nation—as represented at the conference of young Republicans in session here today—will go to the polls in 1932 on the record of President Hoover during the depression and with a defense of the Hawley-Smoot tariff bill.

These themes, at least, were the dominant note of the first deliberations of the group, the registrations for which were announced today as in excess of 500.

Fess Strikes Note.

President Hoover's hat had been cast in the ring, with or without his consent, by Senator Simeon D. Fess of Ohio, chairman of the Republican national committee.

The note sounded by Fess was echoed throughout the conference by other speakers representing both the national organization and the Republican organizations of many states.

The young Republicans will be received at the White House by the president this afternoon. It is expected he will receive the informal pledge of most of the group that they will seek his renomination and re-election.

Tariff is Defended.

Mr. Hoover's wage maintenance agreement with business leaders and his no-wage boost demand with labor at the outset of the depression was lauded by many.

The tariff was defended by all speakers, who indicated they believed it would be the big issue in 1932.

During the meeting the Republican insurgents were assailed on all sides. The senate, in particular, was condemned. The LaFollette-Republican organization in Wisconsin was singled out and Assistant Secretary of Labor Snyder derisively coupled the name of Senator Borah (R) of Idaho with the Democrats in discussing the senate tariff fight.

Dry Issue Untouched.

Prohibition was not mentioned during the first day's discussions.

During today's meeting two cabinet officers, Secretary of Agriculture Hyde and Secretary of War Hurley, were to speak. Other speakers included Prof. James J. Robinson, Indiana university; Assistant Secretary of the Navy Ingalls, Miss Katherine V. Parker of the Republican Women's club of Massachusetts, Robert A. Taft of Cincinnati, W. Kingsland Macy, chairman Republican state committee, New York; Mayor William B. Harrison, Louisville, and Dr. William Starr Myers of Princeton university.

Scout Board Hears Progress Reports

Executive Administrators Of Local Boy Scout Work In Night Meeting

A good meeting of the Lawrence County Scout council executive board was held last night at the Chamber of Commerce rooms in the Greer building, with Dr. C. J. Williamson, council president, presiding. Various committee reports were received and filed. Several committee chairmen are very encouraging in their data on the work, Rev. A. M. Stump reporting for the reading, Charles Metzler giving the publicity data, L. B. Round gave an encouraging report on camp, and R. L. Boyd reported on the leader training attendances at the course, twenty men being on hand for the last session at camp. Dr. G. S. Bennett gave some good figures on the court of honor work.

In memory of Mortimer Schiff, former president of the Boy Scouts of America, and International Commissioner, the board asked that all troops drape either their troop flag, or troop charter, for a period of thirty days, this to take effect a week from today.

Earle Herbert reported for the Ellwood district, giving a resume of the new troops forming there. The camp season was discussed and future visits to it planned.

Novena To St. Anthony Will Close Saturday

Special Services In St. Lucy's Church Will Mark Close Important Event

Special services this evening and Saturday will mark the close of the great novena that has been conducted in St. Lucy's church, Seventh ward, to St. Anthony of Padua in recent weeks.

Saturday is the feast of this great saint of the Catholic church and marks the 700th anniversary of his death. St. Lucy's church is most fortunate in having a relic of this saint and the services held are for those making the novena and seeking the intercession of the saint in correcting their sickness or other troubles.

This evening at eight o'clock in St. Lucy's church, there will be vespers and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and the kissing of the relic of St. Anthony by those making the devotions.

Solemn high mass will be said at 9:30 a. m. Saturday, the Feast of the Saint, with the pastor Rev. Fr. S. Ippolito in charge. The blessing of the relic will take place at this time.

Saturday evening at seven o'clock the novena will be brought to a close with benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The altar to St. Anthony in St. Lucy's church has been beautifully decorated with flowers and candles and the church and altar presents a very beautiful sight.

"Trim Trees Or Pay Cost"-Treser

Ordinance Provides City Can Order Work And Make Owners Pay

Councilman Stanley Treser, superintendent of the department of streets today gave warning that owners of property on which there are trees which are not at least eight feet high above the sidewalk or which extend over the cartway and are not 14 feet high must trim them.

If they do not the street commission official will order the trees trimmed and the cost charged to the property-owner which can be collected, he reports. In many sections, especially the North Hill tree limbs are so low they interfere with pedestrians and automobiles.

Farewell Planned For Visitor By Knights St. Vitus

Interesting Affair Planned For Sunday Evening In Honor Hoboken Visitor

Sunday evening about eight-thirty o'clock, Harry Bucci of the St. Francis club of Hoboken, N. J., who has been in the city for the purpose of assisting in perfecting the organization of the Knights of St. Vitus, will be tendered a farewell reception by the Knights of St. Vitus in recognition of the service that he has rendered here. There will be an interesting program of addresses and music and a lunch will be served. The affair will be held in the hall of St. Vitus church.

Meyer Avenue Width To Be 26 Feet Wide

When members of city council met in council chambers at the municipal building today they decided that the cartway of Meyer avenue will be 26 feet. Meyer avenue is to be paved between Carlisle street and Highland avenue. Bids have been asked for the paving.

Improvement Conferences Being Planned

Better Business Bureau Will Inaugurate Campaign Here Next Week

STORE IMPROVEMENT METHODS INVOLVED

Plans have been completed by the Better Business Bureau of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce for a Business Improvement Campaign which will be inaugurated here next week under their auspices.

The campaign involves a series of group meetings and conferences, which will open Monday evening at 7:30 D. S. T. in the P. and O. lecture rooms.

Monday evening's meeting, calls for a conference of store executives and owners. On Tuesday evening at the same time, a group meeting of all store employees will be held. Wednesday evening, the store owners and executives will meet again, while on Thursday evening, the store employes will be in conference.

Friday evening has been left open for conference and discussions of various kinds.

These meetings will be conducted by L. J. Anderson of Chicago, Ill., a recognized authority on store methods and have been arranged through the courtesy of the Wholesale Division of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce.

Improved methods of merchandising are expected to result from these conferences, and in addition to the various meetings planned for the different evenings next week. Mr Anderson will arrange for private conferences with various store owners and employes if they so desire.

All stores which expect to participate in the campaign, and who have not already notified the Better Business Bureau of their intention, are urged to do so at once, so that better facilities for conducting these conferences may be arranged.

STUDENTS ON TRAIN

Nearly 40 Sharon public school students, returning from a sightseeing excursion to Washington, D C., and other points of interest, were aboard a special car attached to the Pennsylvania railroad's Pittsburgh-Erie train today.

Guilty Of Driving While Intoxicated

In the case of the commonwealth against Arthur Reedy, charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, the jury this afternoon returned a verdict of guilty as indicted. Reedy was arrested on the Bessemer-Mt. Jackson road by Chief of Police A. A. Shoup of Bessemer.

Miss June Fowler of Homestead street is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kelly of Youngstown.

Starlings Assist Fight On Beetles

HARRISBURG, June 12—Returning from a tour of the southeastern counties, where he has been making investigations to determine to what extent the starlings, grackles and robins are eating the Japanese beetle grubs or larvae, Dr. Thomas E. Winecoff, in charge of research for the Game Commission, said stomach examinations revealed that the starlings, particularly, are consuming a great many of these injurious grubs. As many as fourteen were found in the stomach of one bird. Dr. Winecoff said that examinations of stomachs of robins and grackles revealed the grubs in only one or two instances, however. Further investigations will be carried on this week, in conjunction with a survey of the ringneck pheasant situation. The latter survey is being made in response to various complaints from farmers to the effect that the pheasants are pulling young corn.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

Act Sanely When Youth Has Doubts

Don't Argue With Adolescents On Religion—Myers

By GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D. Head Division Parental Education, Cleveland College, Western Reserve University.

You, father and mother, who have held pretty firmly to the "good old faith," and have taught your children so, may be horribly shocked some day by that adolescent boy or girl of yours who has had the courage to express doubts and disbeliefs in some of those things you have cherished as most sacred and eternal.

Your first impulse will be to express surprise and then deep disappointment. You may shed tears in private over the matter, even before the child. No doubt you will attempt to argue, and before you know it, the argument on both sides will degenerate into a heated battle of feelings and emotions. The more you lose your head the more your child will defend his point of view. He gradually will grow more extreme, stating by and by what he had not at all believed when the argument began, what, indeed, he does not really believe now.

In the first place, it is not a matter of what you believe or what you want your child to believe, but a matter of what he really does believe. However exacting you have been in regard to his conduct, be he ever so obedient; when it comes to what he thinks and believes, no form of coercion will control him. You might be able, of course, to drive him, through threats and cajolery, to "espouse" a certain kind of religious faith; but what goes on in his mind and feelings, they are entirely his.

All else equal, the more exacting you have been with him in general, and the fewer opportunities for freedom of choice, of expression, and conduct he has had, the less likely he will be to be won to your religious faith and belief once serious doubts have confronted him.

To act sanely when your adolescent child boldly declares his independence on matters of philosophy, when his expressed beliefs and disbeliefs run in conflict with yours, is not easy. But any one can see that there is no sense in getting all wrought up or in manifesting grief or disappointment. Least of all is there any use to argue. The best way is not to express surprise at all, not to disagree in the least, but to act as if you did not hear what was said. Then, as soon as you can do so without offense, talk of something else entirely.

In his absence, pray for wisdom and understanding. Try harder to be worthy of his deepest affection and esteem. Critically examine your own religious faith and practice. Ask yourself whether it has been working in your home. Find ways of making it more useful and attractive. Try tactfully to bring your children in touch with strong, likable personalities who have found ways of making their religion practical and satisfying. Patiently wait. Trust in the child's regard for you and in your ability to adjust yourself. It is altogether possible that you will revise some of your own religious concepts in your efforts to make your religion more attractive and dynamic.

Even if your child should acquire strong beliefs widely different from yours, you are not going to be panicky about the matter, or to make him think you feel he has dishonored you. If you can win him to your beliefs, very well; but you are going to prove yourself large enough to acknowledge his right to believe as he likes. The chances are that the best elements in your religion he will find growing in him, even through they appear in different clothes.

Fishermen Relate Great Big Story

(International News Service)

RED LION, Pa., June 12—Five local fishermen, returning from an excursion on Chesapeake Bay, brought back with them one of the prize fish stories of the year—to date.

One of the five, according to the tale, hooked a 70-pound channel bass, measuring four feet two inches.

The bass, according to the anglers, hauled their boat down the bay a considerable distance, with two of the party "playing" the fish until he gave up the struggle.

PERSIAN MARRIAGE LAW

(International News Service)

LONDON, June 12—Sanctity of mariage has been recognized by law in Persia according to a Teheran dispatch. The Persian Government approved a law by which infidelity becomes a criminal offense punishable with imprisonment up to three years for the guilty party, male or female, the dispatch said.

LOOKING BACK

IN NEW CASTLE

Although Lawrence county is one of the smaller counties of Pennsylvania it has one of the finest higher institutions of learning in the state in Westminster College. Westminster College came into existence in 1852. To Rev. George C. Vincent, D. D., then a pastor in Mercer and in charge of an academy there should go the credit of projecting the local institution. Rev. D. H. A. McLean, D. D., then a pastor in Greenville, and in charge of an academy there, also shares in the honor of establishing the college, along with William H. Dickey, Esq., an elder in the Greenville congregation, the latter having the burden of securing funds with which to start the new enterprise. The project was brought before the Associate Presbytery of Shenango at its meeting in New Wilmington in 1852 and approved. When a charter was secured in April 27, 1852, it provided for a board of trustees composed of twelve persons to be selected by the Associate Presbyteries of Ohio and Shenango, each Presbytery to select six of the trustees. In 1859, the board was enlarged and the appointment of its twenty-four members was delegated to the First Synod of the West of the United Presbyterian church, which had come into existence the previous year. In 1872, the Synod of Pittsburgh, became associated with the First Synod of the West in the oversight of the college, it being arranged that twelve members of the board should be appointed by the respective Synods. Since that time, the Alumni were given representation in the board by eight additional members and the board empowered to add eight more, making the membership of the board of control forty. Several towns and villages competed for the college, among them being Mercer, Greenville, New Bedford, New Wilmington and others. The action of A. P. Moore, Esq., in offering $1,500 and five acres of ground at a side for the college won a victory for New Wilmington. Although an effort had been made to change the location to places other than New Wilmington, it is now firmly established at New Wilmington. The first building completed in 1856 was burned to the ground on February 3, 1861. The Administration building known as Old Main, which was destroyed by fire in recent years was erected in 1884 and was renewed within and enlarged in 1907. With the addition of the fine new Administration building, the Robert Audley Brown dormitory and fine gymnasium in the last few years since the disastrous fire that destroyed Old Main to the "Hillside Dormitory" for girls, the College of Music and other property of the college, it now possesses one of the finest college plants in this section of the country.

Many Ex-Service Men Expected To Attend Big Rally

Officers Of Pershing Club Will Address Ex-Service Men Of County District

Arrangements have been completed by officers of the Pershing Club, for their attendance at a big rally of war veterans from the lower section of Lawrence county, which will be held in the American Legion hall at Mt. Jackson, Monday evening at 8 o'clock, Eastern Standard Time.

The purpose of the Pershing Club will be explained in detail, and the many events which require the action of all ex-service men, will be outlined.

It is the aim of the organization to have a county-wide unit, representing all men who have born arms for their country, regardless of whether it was during war or not.

Similar organizations have been formed in Mercer, Butler and Beaver counties, many questions having arisen there as in Lawrence county, which demand the unified action of all ex-service men.

Increase In Gas Tax Expected To Offset Decline

Anticipated Reduction In License Fee Receipts Will Be Balanced

DRIVE ON TO COLLECT DELINQUENT TAXES

(From News Bureau)
(State Capital)

HARRISBURG, June 12.—Increased collections of the gasoline tax is expected to more than offset any probable declines in motor vehicle license receipts for 1931. At the present time the income from license fees are running somewhat behind those of last year.

In 1930 the total receipts from all license sources were $32,960,000. For the first five months of this year the income from this source was $20,021,000 or more than a half million under the corresponding period of last year.

The Department of Revenue is making a drive for the collection of delinquent gasoline taxes and also closer collections of the tax. During May the total collection for the gas tax were in excess of $3,000,000 or more than a $1,000,000 above the figures for May of 1930 when the State was collecting a four cent tax.

With the touring season ahead and the department making a drive to insure closer collections the road building activities of the Highway Department can be assured of ample finances. To further aid the road building programme the legislature approved of a $10,000,000 loan from the general to the motor fund. This is to be repaid within a year.

To Improve Roads

The Highway Department is preparing to improve approximately 2300 miles of road during this season. Of that mileage 1300 are on the present system and the remaining 1000 miles will be included in the 20,000 miles of township roads that the State will take over on August 15.

More than 400 miles of road are scheduled for improvement through Federal-aid. This will be high-type surface roads although in order to keep the cost down extensive grading and relocations of highways are being eliminated.

The remainder of the roads to be surfaced will be of inexpensive materials. Secretary Samuel S. Lewis has announced that more than 800 miles now on the highway system would be improved with a surface costing something under $8000 a mile. The total cost of that programme will run less than $6,000,000 it has been estimated.

Little grading work will be done on those sections of road. The roads will be much along the surfacing done in recent years under the township reward plan when many miles of rural road were improved at a cost of $10,000 or less a mile.

The department plans to use half of the $10,000,000 loan from the general fund for improving 1000 miles of the new township roads to be taken over. Officials are hopeful that supervisors of many townships will be willing to contribute to the improvement of road sections in their districts thereby enabling the department to improve as many miles as possible.

While the type of pavement to be laid this year will be much cheaper than the average for the department in recent seasons the mileage is expected to be much greater. So far this season the mileage completed has been small but with the start of the new biennium on June 1 the Highway Department has started to get its maintenance forces busy on a number of "cheap construction" jobs.

Study Made Of Causes Of Deafness

Defective Hearing Is Not Evident Before Age Of Three

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

The most complete study of a large group of deaf children ever made has just been completed. The survey was made by Dr. G. E. Shambaugh and associates among the children of the public schools for the deaf of Chicago. In all 5,348 deaf children were examined.

Sixty-two of the children had been born deaf. Half of the remainder became deaf before they had reached the age of three. Many of these were probably born deaf, the parents concealing the fact because they wished to escape the stigma of having given birth to a deaf child. Another reason for thinking that many of these were born deaf is that deafness does not begin to be evident until about the age of three.

Nearly all severe deafness in children appears before the age of ten. These figures include acquired deafness. If a child has come to the age of ten with good hearing then the chances are strongly in favor of its continuing to have good hearing.

Of the cases of acquired deafness, meningitis caused 20 per cent, measles 8 per cent, scarlet fever and influenza each 7 per cent. The authors say that tonsils or adenoids can be responsible for severe deafness only when infection has gotten into the middle ear from the throat infection.

Treatment for "Athlete's Foot" or Ringworm of the Foot

There are many treatments for this annoying condition. The last to come to notice is from a retired doctor in California. He says he would like to have his method made known and tried by others, as he has no way of using it as a treatment any more because of his retirement from practice.

He had his first personal experience with so-called athlete's foot last summer and the condition became progressively worse under treatment. "Finally realizing that gasoline is a most active fungicide, in desperation," he says, "I immersed my foot in ordinary commercial 'gas' with practically instaneous relief .When I repeated this foot bath the next day, the irritation had in no way recurred, nor has it to date."

QUESTIONS FROM READERS

San Angelo, Tex.: "What is the cause of St. Vitus' dance?"

Answer: St. Vitus' dance is probably an infection. It is acute and occurs mostly in children. It has been thought that it is related to acute rheumatic fever. The outcome is favorable under proper care and treatment.

Branchport, N. Y.: "What is the effective part of the remedy for kinky hair?"

Answer: One substance used in preparations to take the kink out of hair is gum tragacanth, which is applied to the hair as it is pulled out straight. The gum dries on the hair while it is straightened and prevents it from curling. It is not permanent in its action as it has to be renewed as the hair grows out.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin, for each, and a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1435 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Indigestion and Constipation," "Reducing and Gaining," "Infant Feeding," "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes," "Feminine Hygiene" and "The Care of the Hair and Skin."

Fatal Accidents Are On Increase

Report Shows That 552 Persons Have Been Killed So Far This Year In State

INCREASE SHOWN OVER LAST YEAR

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, June 12.—More than 500 persons have met death in Pennsylvania from automobile accidents during the first four months of this year, according to insurance actuarial statistics made public here. Deaths from this cause in Pennsylvania show an increase of 7.60 over the same period a year ago.

A total of 552 deaths from motor mishaps have been recorded in the state since January 1, the figures show. In the first month of the year there were 149 recorded. February showed 127, March 123 and April 153. During February and March, deaths of this nature were lower than during the same months last year, but increases in the first and fourth months brought the state's average up over that for 1930.

SENIOR WORLD RULER

(International News Service)

THE HAGUE, June 12—Now that King Alfonso has been obleged to give up his throne, Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands has become the senior ruler of the world. She succeeded her father in 1890 when the Spanish king was a boy of four. Next in order comes King Victor Emmanuel of Italy, the ruling sovereign since 1900. King Haakon of Norway came to his throne in 1905 by election. King Gustav of Sweden inherited his in 1907 and King Albert of Belguim succeeded in 1909.

BLOOD PRESSURE MAY BE REDUCED

High blood pressure is not only dangerous, but entails suffering which often is needless. But you can get rid of the kidney and bladder weakness, blinding headaches, back-break pains and torturing nerve tension while reducing pressure.

Ask your druggist for a box of Wildunger Tee, which contains valuable mineral salts from the famous Wildunger Bad in Germany. Unless the very first box brings grateful, comforting relief, your money back.

A New York doctor while traveling in Germany was so impressed with the results thousands were securing from this great kidney and bladder activator that he brought Wildunger Tee to this country. Many American doctors now prescribe it and report that its benefits are equally surprising here.

You can get Wildunger Tee on the distinct understanding that unless it helps, your money will be refunded to you. It may be had at New Castle Drug Co., 31 East Washington St. and 44 North Mill St.

Dauphin Gets Big Investment Return

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, June 12—For the amount of state taxes paid, Dauphin county gets the largest return in commonwealth investments, it was disclosed here in tabulations made public by Auditor General Charles A. Waters, who has just completed a study of state revenues and expenditures.

In 1930, the county paid $2,755,560 in state taxes while the commonwealth spent $8,589,798 in the county, a return of $16.75 per capita in taxes and $51.86 per capita in state investments. Phincipal sources of return were construction of state buildings and township and county road aid in the county.

Coast Wise Trade Increase Shown

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, June 12—Substantial increase in foreign and coast wise trade handled through the Port of Philadelphia is shown for 1930 in a report issued by Col. Earl I. Brown, United States Army engineer in charge of river and harbor improvements here.

Movement of vessels during 1930, Col. Brown's report shows, was greater during 1930 than during any previous year with a total of 15,292 ships visiting the port, an increase of 1374 over the preceding year. Aggregate tonnage carried, 31,315,145, was a gain of 3.51 per cent over tonnage carried during 1929.

Ancient Church Drawing Found

(International News Service)

LANCASTER, Pa., June 11.—Recent discovery in London of an architect's drawing of St. James church erected here about the middle of the 18th century, is the most important historical find affecting Lancaster of recent times, according to local historians.

The drawing of the original church was discovered by chance in rooms of the Church of England's missionary organization by Prof. A. H. Young, of Trinity College, Toronto. Prof. Young had heard of the drawing through William F. Worner, librarian of the Lancaster county Historical Society, who has for years sought a picture of the original church. Copies of the drawing have been made and forwarded here, rounding out the history of the historic church.

GAIN NEW HEALTH

"Ten Herbs improved my general health," said Mr. George Davies, R. F. D. 7, Box 25A, Haydenville, Pa. "For a long time I had been in very poor health. Food did not digest right, but caused gas and suffocation. I had headaches and dizzy spells and there were pains in my sides and legs. Constipation bothered me and my sleep was broken. I tried Ten Herbs and now I am free of gas and pains in my stomach and heartburn has been relieved. The pains are gone from my sides and limbs and constipation has been ended. I gladly recommend Ten Herbs to others."

Ten Herbs is sold at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 E. Washington street, and by all leading druggists throughout this entire section.

Three New Castle People Honored At State Convention

Mrs. Jessie Crooks, Elected Department President By Daughters Of Veterans

Elmer Abel And Frank Hill Named Senior And Junior Vice-Commanders

(International News Service)

LANCASTER, Pa., June 12.—With election and installation of officers, the 65th annual encampment of the State G. A. R. and six allied organizations drew to a close here Thursday afternoon. Most of the Civil War veterans, after installing officers elected Wednesday, left for their homes and delegates of auxiliary organizations prepared to follow.

Last of the elections on the convention program were held Thursday afternoon when the Sons of Union Veterans and Daughters of Union Veterans chose officers for next year. Charles F. Aument, Lancaster, was named department commander of the Sons of Veterans. Elmer Abel, New Castle, was chosen senior vice-commander and Frank Hill, also of New Castle, was named junior vice-commander. Members of the council of administration named today are Benjamin Burger, Philadelphia, P. Peck Garver, Middletown, and E. M. Post, Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. Jessie Crooks, New Castle, was chosen department president of the Daughters of Union Veterans. Other officers named are Anna Raeyling, Philadelphia, senior vice-president; Lou Scott, junior vice-president; and Hanna Kightlinger, Washington, chaplain.

Today, the encampment will close with disposal of routine business, adoption of reports and passage of routine resolutions.

Blanning Gets Commission At Military Academy

Will Enter Air Service At Roanoke Field, After Graduation Thursday

James C. Blanning of 707 Highland avenue, received his commission as a second lieutenant in the U. S. Cavalry at the United States Military Academy, West Point, N. Y., Thursday, thereby becoming the first graduate of that institution from Lawrence county.

After a furlough spent at his home here, he will leave for Roanoke Field, Tex. where he will enter the U. S. Air Forces for a two year training period. In the meantime, he has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. Cavalry.

Cadet Blanning was appointed to West Point four years ago by Congressman T. W. Phillips of Butler county, and has been active in class affairs during his course. He won a major "A" in basketball in addition to standing high in his classes.

Members of his family and many friends were present at the graduation exercises held at West Point Thursday.

Councilmen Finish Viewing Apparatus

Attend Ohio Fire Chief's Convention Demonstration In Akron

City authorities have at last completed inspection of fire fighting apparatus in all the leading factories of the country and all that remains now is for the city fathers to name what kind of pumper will be purchased for the second ward station.

On Thursday Councilman Reeves, Genkinger and Treser and Fire Chief Lynn returned from a visit to Akron and Columbus. At the latter city the delegation from New Castle visited the mammoth fire fighting apparatus plant of the Segrave Fire Apparatus Corporation. The visit to Akron was made for the purpose of viewing the exhibition of apparatus which was held in conjunction with the annual convention of the Ohio Fire Chief's Association.

In Akron the local authorities were present at a pumping demonstration in which fire pumps representing the companies that entered bids for the sale of the second ward pumper were demonstrated.

Rheumatism Goes

Swollen Joints Vanish

How To End Rheumatism In Less Than A Week

If you suffer from torturing rheumatic pains, sore muscles or stiff inflammed joints, it's because your system is full of the dangerous poisons that cause rheumatism and make thousands helpless.

What you need is RU-MA, the new medicine now sold by all druggists; that acts directly on the liver, kidneys and blood, and helps expel through the natural channels of elimination the dangerous poisons that cause rheumatism.

No long waiting for your suffering to stop. RU-MA eases pain the first day and is the one rheumatism remedy guaranteed by Eckerd's and New Castle Drug Co. to free muscles and joints from all painful stiffness, swelling and lameness, or nothing to pay.

Erks Return From B. Of R. T. Confab At Houston, Texas

Trainmen's Delegate And Wife Home After Close Of Six-Weeks' Sessions

After attending the six-weeks-long national convention of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen at Houston, Texas, W. E. Erk, County Line street, official delegate from New Castle Lodge, No. 955, returned to his home here yesterday. Mrs. Erk accompanied her husband on the southwestern trip, made on special trains both ways.

Mr. Erk will make his report of the sessions at the regular meeting of the local trainmen on Thursday, June 18.

Side trips and entertainment galore were provided the host of delegates by the Houston people and the entire state of Texas, Mr. Erk said. A rodeo outside of Houston and a bull fight in one of Mexico's old arenas featured. They visited in Galveston and San Antonio as well as other places.

The Erks brought back specimens of Texas reptile life in the form of two horned toads which they found there.

The Brotherhood, acting on important matters of concern to railroad trainmen, opened its first session on May 4 and the last took place last Tuesday, June 9.

In his role as official delegate, Mr. Erk represented trainmen of all railroads operating in this district.

The Open Tomb And Open Heaven

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures.—I Corinthians 15:3, 4.

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

This wonderful concluding chapter of Luke's gospel from which is taken our lesson on the resurrection and ascension of our Lord brings us the story of His open grave, the opened eyes of His two disciples on the road to Emmaus, the opening of the Scriptures to them by their Lord, the opening of their home to Him, the opening of their minds to understand the Scriptures and the opening of the heavens to receive the ascending Lord out of their sight.

The Open Tomb

The miracle of all miracles is the resurrection of our Lord, as evidenced by His open tomb and empty grave clothes which Peter and John found lying undisturbed in their original position in the tomb, but empty of the blessed body they had held. "Peter arose and ran unto the tomb; and stopping and looking in, he seeth the linen cloths by themselves." But though the tomb was open the disciples' eyes and minds and hearts were closed to the thought of His being alive. All reports of the resurrection "appeared in their sight as idle talk; and they disbelieved them."

The Opened Scriptures

Two disciples, one of whose names was Cleopas, were journeying sadly the seven miles from Jerusalem to Emmaus, when they were suddenly joined by the risen Lord, "but their eyes were holden that they should not know Him." The pathetic thing about these disciples was that their religion was entirely a religion of past tenses! Thus they revealed it to Jesus Himself: "Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet—delivered up to be condemned to death, and crucified. . . . But we hoped that it was he who should redeem Israel. Yea and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things came to pass." Even hope was dead! To this dead hope the risen Lord who walked with them ministered by "opening to them the scriptures"; "beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself." What a wonderful seven-mile walk that was as Christ pictured Himself to them in every part of their Old Testament Scriptures!

The Open Home

Then they opened their home to Him as a guest and strangely He assumed the role of host, taking the bread and blessing it and giving it to them as though they were His guests. Thus a humble meal to which He is invited becomes a sacrament still in any home that makes Him its Head. "Their eyes were opened, and they knew Him," and they said, "Did not our hearts burn within us while He opened to us the Scriptures?"

The Open Heavens

Forty days after the opening of the tomb came the opening of the heavens to receive Him back whence He had come. "And He lifted up His hands, and blessed them. And it came to pass, while He blessed them, He parted from them, and was carried up into heaven." His last act a benediction under which all may still come through faith in Him as Lord and Saviour.

(The International Uniform Lesson for June 14 is Luke 24:25-40, 50, 51, the subject being, "The Resurrection and Ascension," and the Golden Text, Romans 8:34.)

Vancouver Gains In Grain Shipments

Shipments Are Nineteen Million Bushels More Than Last Year

(International News Service)

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 12.—Grain shipments from the port of Vancouver for the first nine months of the current crop year, that is from August 1, 1930, to April 30, 1931, were about 19,000,000 bushels more than in the corresponding period of the previous year.

In the nine months under review grain shipments totalled 57,542,030 bushels, and though below the record of 84,022,171 bushels shipped up to the same date two years ago, last year's total is exceeded by 18,780,266 bushels.

Of the shipments since August 1 last year 41,260,600 bushels went to the British Isles and European ports 14,174,426 bushels to the Orient, 1,373,760 bushels to South and Central America and 733,244 to other countries.

In the first week of May nine ships were in port loading nearly 1,000,000 bushels and it is expected the total shipments for May will reach about 5,000,000 bushels. There were in storage early in May in the elevators at the port of Vancouver over 13,000,000 bushels of grain, and 900 cars of wheat and other cereals were in the railway yards.

Miss Durant Stuns British By Speed

Daughter Of Auto Magnate To Tour Continent By Plane

(International News Service)

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., June 12.—Southampton has ceased to wonder at the size and number of the automobiles American tourists bring with them when they visit England, but the port officials sat up and took notice when Margery Durant, daughter of William C. Durant, the auto magnate, arrived complete with cabin airplane, pilot and mechanic.

Miss Durant, disembarking from the Stattendam, explained she had brought her 'plane over for a tour of northern Africa, the near east and southern Europe.

Although Miss Durant told reporters she was not out to break any records, the speed with which her machine was unshipped and got into the air caused the locals to rub their eyes.

The liner arrived in Cowes Roads at 11:10 a. m. Twenty minutes later her airplane was in a barge, and in another ten minutes the machine with its American owner and her aerial chauffeur and mechanic were aloft enroute to Hamble aerodrome.

"I am using the plane to show how it fulfills the need for swift, comfortable and safe locomotion," Miss Durant told International News Service. "I believe I am the first woman to undertake an air tour of the nature contemplated."

Dinner Stories

THIRTY DAYS?

A long-haired youth entered a music publisher's office carrying under his arm a small roll of paper.

"Good afternoon!" said the publisher, "what can I do for you?"

The youth looked nervous.

"Well-er- I have a song here," he began, "and I was wondering if you would publish it. Er-shall I sing it?"

"Oh, yes, let's hear it!" said the publisher: and the youth stood up and burst forth.

"Well" asked the young man, "what do I get for it?"

"Oh," replied the other, with an air of resignation, "I'm a publisher, not a judge."

ONE OF THE FRATERNITY

Jones was never an early bird at the office. One morning his boss exclaimed: "Late again. Have you ever done anything on time?'

"Yes, sir," was the meek and prompt reply. "I purchased a car."

MODERN PERIOD

"What a delightful new sideboard, Mrs. Hoof! Period, of course?"

"Oh, yes—thirty-six monthly payments."

Correct this sentence: "I am made very proud," said the president, "when I read the news items written to humanize me."

300,000 DUE AT CONCERTS.

(International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—Attendance of at least 300,000 persons, many of them from middle-western and eastern states, is expected during this summer's "Symphonies Under the Stars" in Hollywood Bowl, according to Glenn M. Tindall, Bowl manager. Tindall bases his estimate on the large number of season ticket books and boxes already sold and the demand for seat reservations. Last summer, when a record up to that time was set, the attendance was a little over 240,000.

State Programs For Disease Prevention Heard In Convention

American Medical Association Hears Reports At Sectional Meeting

Description Of Tennessee's And Michigan's Program Given

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—Outstanding programs that have been developed by the various states held the center of interest Thursday of the sectional meeting on preventive and industrial medicine and public health of the American Medical Association.

Description of Tennessee's program of tuberculosis control was given by Dr. Eugene L. Bishop, of Nashville, and Massachusetts' similar plan was discussed. In the latter state of 140,000 grade school children examined 26 per cent were found to have been affected at some time or other and a few still had pulmonary tuberculosis, Dr. Alton S. Pope, of Newtonville, told the physicians. The reaction among high school students was twice as high he said and the number of cases was six times higher than those in the grades.

Detroit Is Active

A concentrated drive against diphtheria in Detroit has resulted in the protection of 80 per cent of the school children and 70 per cent of the younger children of the city, Dr. Henry Vaughn, city health officer, reported.

The uses of X-rays and radium are constantly widening, according to papers presented by Dr. George S. Phahler, Philadelphia, Dr. Howard A. Kelly, Baltimore, and Dr. Ira A. Kaplan, of New York.

Physicians assembled at the symposium on nervous and mental diseases were informed by Dr. Roy G. Hoskins, of Boston, that dementia praecox, one single mental ill, exacted a toll of more than a million dollars a day throughout the nation. Dementia praecox is adolescent insanity and a term used to include a large range of mental disorders, he explained.

Ask Auto Owners To Protest Change In Vehicle Code

Auto Club Urges Protest Against Inspection Of Cars

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—Pennsylvania's 1,800,000 motor vehicle owners are urged by the Keystone Automobile club to join in protesting the provision of the amended vehicle code requiring mechanical inspection and approval of vehicles before the issuance of license tags.

"This provision," said J. Borton Weeks, president of the club, "is not only unwarranted by conditions, but cannot be carried out without great inconvenience and in many cases injustice to car owners.

"Enforcement will cost the motorists millions of dollars.

"It will place the state's vehicle owners directly in the power of an 'official station' organization that failed dismally in the three years of experimentation with mechanical inspection and it will give to individuals in the garage business an authority not hitherto exercised by the state itself."

Weeks further declared that the inspection organization that functioned in the last three years is not a proper organization for carrying out a provision of this caracter, even if it is admitted that inspection is necessary as a pre-requisite to registration.

"Benj. G. Eynon, Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, has publicly stated that previous inspections were marked by incompetency and crookedness," he added.

Seeress Leads Woman On Long Hike

(International News Service)

DENVER, June 12.—A fortune teller's vague statement that a long-lost brother could be found in Colorado recently prompted Miss Jennie Graham, 63, to hitch hike from Brownstown, Ind., to Denver. Miss Graham, on her arrival, said she had not seen her brother, John Graham, since 1906.

"I sort of had an idea he was in Colorado," the aged hiker said, "and when the fortune teller told me he was, I was convinced.

"It wasn't much trouble to get rides. A couple of time, though, I had to take the bus for short rides because there are so many hoboes on the road."

LEAVES ON SUNDAY FOR PACIFIC COAST

Miss Sally Cohen of East Winter avenue will leave on Sunday for a three months sojourn through the Pacific Coast. During her stay there, she will visit in Los Angeles, Hollywood and other places of interest.

KIWANIANS AT BEAVER FALLS

Inter-City Meeting Is Held On Thursday Evening In Valley

ELLWOOD CITY, June 12.—An inter-city meeting of the Kiwanis Clubs of the Beaver valley was held last evening in the Broadhead Hotel in Beaver Falls, clubs from Beaver Falls, Aliquippa, Ellwood City, Rochester, Ambridge and Sewickley being represented. A short talk was given by the district governor, H. E. Helling, which was followed by the main talk of the evening by Senator Ernest, state senator from Dauphin county. Senator Ernest spoke on national and state government.

Ricka Thomas Weds John Mathas

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., June 12.—A pretty wedding was solomnized in the P. B. V. M. church on Thursday morning, when Miss Ricka Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patsy Thomas of 314 Franklin avenue and John Mathas son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mathas of Ellport, were united in marriage.

The bride was most handsome in a long white satin gown with a bridal veil of lace. The bride carried an armful bouquet of white roses and lillies of the valley. The couple was attended by Miss Pauline Colao who acted as maid of honor and Joseph Zingaro who served as best man.

The bridesmaids were the Misses Rose Thomas, Florence Caruso, Lena Venezie. The ushers were Lawrence Colao, Albert Caruso and Joe Simon. Following the ring ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. Covers for 100 persons were laid, in the P. B. V. M. hall. In the evening a reception took place in the hall. Dancing was in vogue until a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathas will reside at 314 Franklin avenue.

Husbands Guests At Class Meeting

ELLWOOD CITY, June 12.—The husbands of the members of the Happy Hour class were special guests at their regular meeting last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Perdue at Moravia Stop. There were about 75 people present on this occasion.

A short business meeting was first held with routine matters being transacted. A delicious luncheon was then served in buffet after which all adjourned to the lawn where an interesting period of games and contests was enjoyed.

Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. Emmet Newton and Mrs. Sam Houk were members of a committee which was in charge of the affair. The next meeting of the class will be announced later.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Smith and family and Duane Stewart of Homestead, Pa.

ELLWOOD PERSONALS

Mrs. Zena Stephenson and family spent Thursday with her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Vaneman.

Moslems Win Wailing Wall

The age-old Wailing Wall in Jerusalem, Palestine, fought over for centuries in many bloody battles between Jews and Moslems, has been finally awarded to the Moslems by formal decree of the International Arbitration Commission with the provision that Jews have access to it for religious ceremonies. The decree provides that while the religious shrine is the property of the Moslems, they must not harm Jews should they wish to do penance there. This picture shows devout Jews beating their breasts before the wall on a holy day.

TWO WORKMEN ARE INJURED

ELLWOOD CITY, June 12.—Two men, Mike Moczan and Howard Duncan escaped serious injury Thursday evening as a hook on a ladel broke and molten steel poured out of a container and burned the men in several places about the body and hands.

The men had been doing some work in the local tube plant near the molten steel container when the accident occurred. They were immediately rushed to the plant hospital, where a competent physician and nurses took charge of their injuries. The men are reported in fine condition today.

Regular Class Meeting Is Held

ELLWOOD CITY, June 12.—About 17 members of the Hannah P. MacDonald class assembled in the rooms of the U. P. church for their regular meeting last evening.

Routine matters were transacted at the business meeting, after which the remainder of the time was spent in working on the scrap books for the missionary.

A delicious luncheon were served by a committee composed of Mrs. Charles Brandt, Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. F. P. McKim.

Mrs. Ray Vangorder Entertains Class

"Old Man" of Huskies' Crew

The "Old Man" in amateur sports usually means the coach, but in the case of "Pop" Phillips (above) it refers to none other than himself, No. 5 blade on the crew of the Washington Huskies of Seattle. "Pop" won his nickname by his more than tender years, a wife and a son who he hopes will some day earn a place on the crew with which he pulls a strong oar. Although Phillips is 28 years old, he's surpassed by "Baldy" Pete McManus, 31-year-old farmer, who enrolled in Cornell when he was thirty and has also won, by coincidence, the No. 5 berth on the crew from Ithaca, N. Y.

Sandwich Club Is Entertained

Mrs. Charles Stiner Proves Charming Hostess Last Evening

ELLWOOD CITY, June 12.—Mrs. Charles Stiner with delightful hospitality opened her home on Third street last night to the pleasure of the members of the Sandwich club.

There were three tables of club members and two of special guests who thoroughly enjoyed the evening at bridge. The home was a veritable flower garden with its great variety of gorgeous flowers adorning selected places about the room.

At the conclusion of the games Mrs. F. P. Peck was presented the club prize and Mrs. William Weiskopf received the first award for the special guests. Mrs. Howard Jenkins and Mrs. Dave Cartwright were presented second and third honors for special guests.

With the assistance of Mrs. Fred Bell of New Castle and Mrs. C. R. ONeil, the hostess served a luncheon that was highly pleasing to those present.

The day of the next meeting of the club is undetermined as yet and will be announced later.

CLASS MEETS

ELLWOOD CITY, June 12.—Miss Charlotte Davidson was hostess to the members of her Sunday school class at her home on Park avenue last night. There were eight members present.

Miss Ruth Learsch, the secretary of the class presided at the meeting upon the absence of the other officers of the class. Miss Davidson was in charge of the devotionals.

South Side Wants Streets Repaired

Committee Also Requests Council To Do Something About Curb

Alex Samuels and colleagues of the South Side Board of trade today requested council to expedite negotiations between the city and Penn-Ohio railways which would result in improvement in Hamilton street and East Long avenue where railways track abandoned.

Councilman Treser informed the delegation council has conferred with superintendent C. C. Coulthard relative to a settlement by which the company would pay the city a designated sum and the city would repair the thoroughfares. Beaver St. would be included in the arrangement.

Coulthard is expected to deliver his answer to the propostion soon.

The delegation also asked that some arrangement be made whereby automobiles can be parked in Long Avenue without hub caps being torn off. The curb is too high, the delegation pointed out.

The latter question was referred to Councilman Treser and Solicitor White.

Prisoner to Chief

Highest rank in the new government's army in Spain, captain general of the land forces, has been given to Don Francisco Aguilera y Egea, above, who was a military prisoner under the reign of King Alfonso.

Many Pledges To Community Chest Have Not Been Met

Subscribers Are Urged To Make Prompt Payment To Avoid Deficit

At the recent meeting of the New Castle community chest directors the fact was brought out that an emergency situation is faced by the chest through the non-payment of subscriptions.

Many subscribers have neglected to pay their third installment on their community chest pledges and special notices are being mailed to these people calling their attention to the great need for funds at this time.

Up to the present time the subscriptions have been enough to take care of the monthly apportionments to the various institutions, but unless many of those who are delinquent pay their subscriptions between now and the first of July a deficit will be faced.

Several of the institutions have been hard hit during the past winter and have no funds available at the present time, having lived up to their budget, and in some cases have made obligations a little in excess with the thought that when the summer months arrived they would be able to make this up.

All subscribers who have neglected to pay their third installment are urged to do so as promptly as possible.

Doctors Say Ritty Permanently Disabled

Future Course Of City To Be Recommended By Mayor Gillespie

Policeman Michael J. Ritty is permanently disabled in the opinion of Drs. E. U. Snyder and J. M. Popp who conducted a physical examination of the patrolman, according to City Solicitor White. The solicitor delivered the report to council when the solons convened today at the city building. Whether or not he will be continued as a policeman or be removed from the payroll and paid compensation for a total of 500 weeks rests with Mayor Gillespie, council having referred the city's future course to the mayor for a recommendation.

Ritty was struck by an automobile while performing his duty. He spent a considerable time in the hospital and has been drawing $15 weekly compensation for about a year.

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop 12 Hikes

Troop 12 of the Girl Scouts enjoyed a supper hike Thursday evening to the "little house" at Coaltown.

Patrol 3 carried away the honors by carrying their wood, building a fire, cooking a supper of three dishes, burning their garbage and leaving a pile of wood for the incoming troop, and doing this in less time than the competing patrols.

Six gold stars were awarded for perfect attendance, and those winning these were Mary Alice Carey, Rose Green, Pereseta Cosgrove, Rose Ann Hagan, Eleanor Quinn and Mary Mescall.

The troop added four new names to their roster; those of Mary Elizabeth Wadlinger, Rita Flynn, Dorothy Walsh, Dorothy Wadlinger.

WANT DIRT PLACED IN PARK AVENUE

When councilmen met at the city building today a petition was presented and asked that dirt removed from Blaine street, to be paved this summer, be placed in Park avenue between Young and North Mercer streets. Park avenue between Blaine and North Mercer streets has not been graded to its full width. Considerable dirt has been placed there in the past, it was reported.

Only one motor fuel can give you more power, pickup and mileage than

PENNZIP

-THE SPECTACULAR NEW GREEN GASOLINE

PENNZIP Ethyl

THE new green Pennzip is an extraordinary gas, yet it sells for the same price as ordinary motor fuels.

Pennzip ignites instantly, permits quicker starting and acceleration, and delivers more power per explosion than other gasolines of equal price. Pennzip effectively reduces motor knock and increases mileage . . . per gallon and per hour . . . in any make or age of car.

THERE is only one motor fuel better than Pennzip and that is Pennzip Ethyl. It has all the superior features of Pennzip plus the advantages that Ethyl alone can give.

PENNZOIL Motor Oil — Use Pennzoil Motor Oil in your motor. It is made from 100% pure Pennsylvania crude and nothing else. It lubricates and protects your engine better. It costs less per mile. Millions of motorists call it "the best motor oil in the world."

Charge Is Made Against Man Who Attacked Shoup

Bessemer Chief Of Police Has Narrow Escape At Hands Of Joe Kinkella

RIFLE AIMED AT HEART OF OFFICER

Chief of Police A. A. Shoup of Bessemer, has made an information before Justice James Chaney, charging Joe Kinkella with wantonly and maliciously pointing firearms, and also with being an alien possessing firearms.

The information is the result of a thrilling experience which nearly cost Shoup his life. About 10 o'clock Wednesday night a man and woman drove up to the police station at Bessemer and informed Chief Shoup, that there was a man down the road who was holding up people with a gun.

Shoup jumped into his car and drove to the place indicated. He met Kinkella coming up the road with a rifle and stopped his car. When he asked Kinkella what he was doing with the rifle, Kinkella shoved it into the car door against Shoup's heart. Grabbing the gun Shoup held it from him until he got out of the car. He noticed that the rifle was cocked and managed to get his finger on the trigger and discharge it, while he fought for the weapon.

He had just secured possession of the gun when four men, who had seen Kinkella pointing it came up. Kinkella, who appeared to be under the influence of liquor, claimed that he had been robbed and that he was out to get somebody. He said he could show the officer where the persons who had robbed him lived. The officer took him to the house indicated. There was nobody about and the house was dark. Kinkella suddenly took a notion to kick in the door. Shoup grabbed him and took him to the police station, locking him in a cell.

Kinkella was quite noisy in the cell, till around one o'clock, when he became quiet. Shoup went out to take a look around the town. When he came back he noticed that a door leading to the cell room, and which he had closed when he left, was partly open. Becoming suspicious he approached cautiously, and it was well that he did for Kinkella was hiding behind it with an iron bar. When he saw the officer was suspicious, Kingella made a dash for a side door and got out. Shoup followed and a lively chase ensued. When Shoup was within ten feet of the prisoner, who had refused to stop when commanded, Shoup shot his revolver into the air. Instantly Kinkella turned, and came at him with the iron bar. Shoup dodged a blow and struck Kinkella on the head with the butt of his gun, knocking him unconscious. Kinkella was brought to the Jameson Memorial hospital, where it was found that he was suffering with a fractured skull, but that he is likely to recover. Shoup is congratulating himself on his narrow escape. The iron bar with which Kinkella attacked, was a leg of a cot in the cell. Kinkella had wrenched it off and pried open the lock of the cell with it. He will be given a hearing as soon as he is able to leave the hospital.

Science To See If Smoke Hurts Throat, Lungs

Tests Will Be Made To Determine Affect On Humans

(International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 12.—The determination of the effects of smoke on the nose and throat and lungs, will be the first task of the new Oscar Johnson Research Institute of the Washington University here. The announcement is made by Dr. McKim Marriott, dean of Washington University School of Medicine and physician in chief of the St. Louis Children's Hospital.

Coal smoke in the nose, throat and lungs has been found to have a great effect on the health and well-being of the individual, Dr. Marriott said, and in an effort to determine its exact effect extensive experiments and research will be conducted by the institute.

Two groups of monkeys will be used in the experiment. One group will breath ordinary St. Louis air, while the other group will breath air that has had all smoke removed.

In cases where the monkeys are affected by the smoke all remedies known to science will be employed in an effort to find a method to overcome the effects of the smoke, he said.

Unemployed Gain By State-Aid Jobs

(International News Service)

HARTFORD, Conn., June 12.—Unemployed of 70 towns in Connecticut secured employment during the past winter through the state park and forest association, getting 40 cents an hour without board and 30 cents when boarded in camps maintained by the association. Each employe received $150 in cash for his work and wood was provided for hundreds of needy families.

According to a report on the men's work adequate fire lines were established on every state forest so that little danger of serious fire is now believed possible. The men also planted 600,000 trees, mostly pine and and spruce, in the forests.

Victor Gets the Spoils

Tommy Armour (left), veteran Scottish-American pro of Detroit, Mich., is shown being presented with the British Open Golf Trophy by the Earl of Airlie, following Tommy's sensational victory in the great English classic at Carnoustie, Scotland. Armour, who learned his golf in Scotland, carries the ancient British open crown to America once more. This is the tenth time in the last 11 years that an American has been victorious. Tommy won with a card of 296. This picture was radioed to the United States from London.

Learns Wilson Saved Her

Sixteeen years after she was sentenced to death by German officers on a charge of being a spy Mlle. Louise Thuliez, present head of a girls' school at Paris, has learned that it was through the intervention of President Woodrow Wilson that her life was spared. Mlle. Thuliez was sentenced with Edith Cavell, famous English war nurse, whose life was taken by a firing squad. Mlle. Thuliez is shown with a group of her students.

Eynon Raps 'Snake Driver" As Menace

HARRISBURG, June 12.—The "snake" driver is at it again. He is the automobile operator who frantically weaves in and out of the line of traffic regardless of the safety of others. He was responsible for 235 accidents in one month, three of them fatal.

"This type of operator prides himself on his judgment of distance and speed," Benjamin G. Eynon said in announcing that the Pennsylvania highway patrol had been ordered to put a stop to it. "The 'snake' driver's luck in avoiding crashes depends entirely on the consideration given him by the operator of an approaching vehicle or on those in line ahead opening a safe hole for him to get into.

"Pulling out of line is not frowned on, but the operator should be certain the oncoming lane of traffic is clear. Play it safe. Don't depend on the other fellow's courtesy. He may be just as stubborn or inconsiderate as you and keep plunging ahead. The 'snake' driver is a menace to approaching cars and to operators in the line behind him or ahead."

Chinese Strike When "Big Benny" Tells Fourteen

Gets Eccentric After Many Years Of Faithful Service

(International News Service)

SHANGHAI, June 12.—When the clock struck fourteen it struck awe into the hearts of the employees of a local American firm.

"Big Benny" as the time-piece is known to thousands of hurrying Shanghai residents, has given faithful service during the seven years of his life at the intersection of Szechuan Road and Avenue Edward VII. However, the other afternoon 1:27 p. m. to be exact, witnessed his undoing and for some unknown reason he struck fourteen whereupon all hands stopped work and began to think of calling the doctor.

Although the East has the reputation for ignoring time, still that commodity arouses a great deal of discussion. For instance in Peking there is more of it wasted in discussing whose is right. There is the time of the American Legation, obtained daily by radio by the Marine wireless from Cavite. That varies by many minutes from the clock on the tower of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank which most foreigners swear by.

Now and then one overheard an argument between devotees of the tower clock time and those of the noon gun. That usually brings a smile to the face of the witness for it is a legend that that clock is set by the scund of the noon gun which in turn is fired from a watch synchronized with the tower clock fifteen minutes before noon each day.

Trainmaster Is Honored At Fete

Frank J. Perry, Dean Of Pennsy Officials, Gets Birthday Tribute

FIFTY FROM CITY SHARE TESTIMONIAL

Honoring Trainmaster F. J. Perry, this city, who next August will bring to a close of 46 years of service for the Pennsylvania railroad nearly 130 Pennsylvania railroad men and their wives from New Castle, Youngstown and other E. & A. division points assembled Thursday at the Poland Country club, near Youngstown, for a fitting testimonial to the dean of division officials.

Golf for the men and bridge for the ladies furished the diversion during the warm afternoon, while in the evening came a dinner and brief, snappy program at which due honor was formally paid Mr. Perry.

Birthday For Him

So that the honor guest might more vividly remember the occasion, which simultaneously marked his 65th birthday, the Trainmaster's department through a chosen representative, presented to him a set of matched iron golf clubs. He was also presented three additional clubs by the members of Superintendent H. T. Frushour's staff.

W. R. Sturdy, this city, yardmaster of the Hazelton yards, served as general chairman for the afternoon golf matches, while the dinner arrangements were planned and supervised by Mrs. E. A. Travis and Mrs. J. G. Howe, both of Youngstown, wives of Pennsy general yardmasters.

In the golf tournament of the afternoon, Assistant Trainmaster F. V. Robison won the blind bogey by a net score of 73. Superintendent Frushour came through with the low gross score.

Kearns Offers Gift

E. A. Travis of Youngstown was the efficient master of ceremonies at the dinner program. After introductory remarks he introduced P. H. Kearns, this city, who at the close of an appropriate speech, presented the department's gift to Mr. Perry. Road Foreman of Engines T. L. Bailey acted for the officials in presenting the additional clubs. Mr. Perry's response, for the gifts were a complete surprise, was a hearty one.

Trainmaster Perry entered the service of the Pennsylvania on August 2, 1885, later becoming division operator on February 1, 1905. He was elevated to the position he now holds on February 7, 1911.

The event at the Poland links and clubhouse yesterday was attended by more than 50 Pennsylvania folk, including practically the entire E. and A. offical family.

IRONDEQUOIT, N. Y., June 12. —The famous Red Jacket Oak has been sacrificed to the automobile.

Under its branches Chief Red Jacket of the Senecas addressed conciliatory speeches to his tribesmen, saving them from extermination by the English, according to credible tradition.

The tree was 20 feet in circumference. Village officials had it cut into fire wood "because it constitutes a menace to traffic and impedes progress."

Back After 38 Years

Sentenced to two years in jail for forgery nearly 40 years ago in a small Nebraska town, Charles E. Johnson (above) escaped with only seven months of his sentence to run. Now after 38 years of wandering, during which he escaped death in a shipwreck, finally married and settled down, he has given himself up to the authorities of Lincoln, Nebraska. Johnson has several children living in Washington.

Business So Good Costs Him $25.00

MEMPHIS, June 12. — Business was so rushing for Floyd Creasy, Memphis attorney, that he found himself with two cases to try in two different courts at the same time.

He began one case in Judge Wallace's court and after it had progressed a short way asked permission to step across the street to address a jury in the second case. The request was granted on the promise that the recess would not be long.

It lasted 45 minutes and when Creasy returned he was fined $25 for contempt of court.

Famed Lightship Gets A New Light

(International News Service)

NORFOLK, Va., June 12.—Chesapeake Lightship, passed by all vessels entering or leaving the Virginia capes and thus serving the ports of Norfolk, Newport News, Baltimore, and Washington, has been given a more powerful masthead light.

The candlepower of the light is now 16,000, placing it in the same class as Nantucket Lightship, off the Massachusetts coast, Fenwick Island Shoal Lightship, off the Delaware coast, and Frying Pan Shoals Lightship, off the North Carolina coast.

Chesapeake Lightship, while built in 1900, carries the same equipment as many of the newer lightships. Not only is its light a powerful one, but a radiobeacon, installed in 1923, extends its effectiveness about two hundred miles beyond the range of any light.

Playing cards may be cleaned by rubbing with a clot dipped in spirits of camphor.

Credit Control Urged By Banker

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Ill., June 12. — The prevention of business inflation through the control of credits will eliminate business depression, Harland H. Allen, economist of the Foreman-State National Bank of Chicago, said in a recent address.

"Every painful recovery period has had its own antecedent of credit orgy and resultant inflation of prices and production," Allen declared. "The one sure way to prevent business depression is to prevent business inflation; and the one effective way to prevent business inflation is to keep credits under control."

Ambassador Gibson Is Some Fisherman; But Catches "Tame" Ones

President Hoover's Granddaughter Peggy Anne, Will Miss Her "Pet" Trout

Fishing Controversy Rages At Rapidan Fishing Camp—Rep. Wood Also Offender

By GEORGE E. DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 12.—As the imaginative writers would say, another bombshell has been exploded in the great Rapidan fishing controversy—a controversy which began when assistant secretary of the navy, E. L. Jahncke formally charged Ambassador Hugh Gibson with fishing in one of the ornamental pools at President Hoover's mountain camp and catching a Rainbow trout which turned out to be "Toby," the pet of little Peggy Anne, who is the executive's five-year-old granddaughter.

Today's latest development was the revelation that Gibson was not the first week-end guest at Camp Rapidan to catch one of these liver-fed, and therefore sacred, fish. Rep. Will R. Wood (R) of Indiana, hard-boiled chairman of the House Ways and Means committee, was the first offender, according to reliable information, and Wood is one who prides himself on his piscatorial ability.

As the story goes, Wood, who was present the week-end the War department officials conferred over paring the army budget, decided to get in a little fishing while the warriors caucused. Reminiscing, no doubt, of that last 75-pound sailfish he caught in Florida, the hoosier took rod and reel and went in quest of a pool along the stream.

Fishing In Pool

Fate guided him to the one in front of the president's cabin, where there are naught but Rainbow trout, fed daily by the help and far superior in size to the scrawny brook trout for which Mr. Hoover casts downstream. No sooner was his fly on the water, of course, than he had a robust bite.

Proudly, Wood took the fish back to show the president.

"Humpf," said Mr. Hoover, "You'd better keep out of my aquarium."

But the congressman is not smarting under such formal charges as Jahncke lodged with Ambassador Charles G. Dawes, as dean of the American diplomatic corps, against Gibson. Jahncke wrote our envoy to London that had not Captain Joel T. Boone, White House physician, recognized "Toby" while he was in the frying pan, he unwittingly would have been placed in the position of eating little Peggy Anne's pet.

Gibson Defends Self

The ambassador to Belgium was quick to defend his character. In rebuttal, Gibson, too, wrote Dawes and explained he had not caught "Toby," but a "cannibal fish" which had escaped from one of the pools and was killing the smaller fish in the stream, much to the president's distress. In fact, he asserted, Mr. Hoover personally sent him out to snare the carnivorous trout, being acquainted with his "superlative skill in fishing." He refused to accept Dr. Boone's identification as authentic and said the only thing that would have any weight with him would be a statement "from an interested party, which is impossible, since Peggy Anne is in California and the fish is dead."

Gibson concluded by suggesting that the assistant secretary was inspired to file his complaint by one of the following considerations: (1) "He was consumed with jealousy at my accomplishment;" (2) "He was fearful that further efforts to reduce the navy may negotiate him out of a job," or (3) that Jahncke himself caught "Toby" and sought to divert suspicion.

No Kidding!

Keep your seats gentlemen, we know the specimen is unique but there's no need to crowd. The young lady above is that rara avis a bathing beauty who can actually swim. She is Elinor Klein and has been chosen by her home town as "Miss Scranton," Pa., Miss Klein is an entrant in the Galveston beauty pageant where she will compete for the title "Miss Universe."

Brown Is Guilty On But 2 Counts Of Indictment

Jury's Verdict Not Guilty On First Count But Guilty On Second And Third

After spending all night in the jury room at the Lawrence county court house a jury composed of four women and eight men, this morning brought in a verdict in the case of Ernest Brown, finding him not guilty on the first count of the indictment, charging sodomy, but guilty on the second and third counts. The second count charged assault with intent to commit sodomy and the third solicitation with intent to commit sodomy.

The effect of the verdict will be to lessen the sentence to be imposed Sodomy, the first count, is a felony, and punishable by from five to ten years imprisonment. The second and third counts are misdemeanors, the penalty being from one and one-half to three years.

The case went to the jury at noon yesterday. From that time until court convened this morning the jury deliberated on the case. It is said that in 32 ballots which were taken, there were six for conviction on the first count and six against conviction on this count but for conviction on the other two counts.

Proponents of the latter view of the case finally won out. Some of the jurors were nearly exhausted by their long deliberations in the jury room, and were permitted to go to their homes this morning.

Pastor Leaving For Trip Abroad

Rev. Fr. V. V. Stancelewski To Sail On June 18 For Two Months Overseas

Rev. Fr. V. V. Stancelewski, pastor of St. Philip and James church, leaves New Castle on Thursday, June 18, for New York from where he will sail for a two months' trip thru Europe.

On his trip he will visit the Vatican in Rome, will visit Naples and Milan, Paris, Posen, Vilna, Warsaw, Cracow and Lemberg. On July 4 he will be in Posen, Poland, where a statue of former President Woodrow Wilson will be unveiled. The statue is the gift of the great Polish pianist, Paderewski, to his native Poland.

Announce Result Of Miners' Tests

HARRISBURG, June 12.—Department of Mine officials today announced the results of the annual examinations held for the qualifying of applicants as mine foreman, assistant mine foreman and fire boss.

The examining boards which held the examination in the anthracite field gave tests to 476 applicants of whom 414 were successful. In the bituminous field 972 men took the examination and 398 passed.

Department officials credit the increased interest in the annual examinations to the mining extension courses given by several of the colleges and to night schools, established and to a great extent financed, by the coal operators.

Robbers Will Have To Swim For Him Now

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Ill., June 12.—John G. Beuckman thinks the best thing about Chicago is Lake Michigan.

Beuckman is employed at the four-mile crib in the lake, where he supervises the crew in charge of the intake of Chicago's water supply. It is a quet life, occasional storms not withstanding.

Recently Beuckman came into the city to get his pay check.

With $59 tucked away in his coat he was waiting for a tug to take him back to work. Two men approached him. One drew a gun and ordered him to hand over his cash. He did so, informing them:

"You'll never get me again. I'm going to go out to the crib and stay there."

Wild West Scene Staged In Wooster

Buffaloes Escape From Rodeo Show, Cowboys Use Lariats To Capture Them

(International News Service)

WOOSTER, O., June 12.—While Wooster college students, in the midst of commencement plans, stared and stared—and wondered whether the days of the "golden west" had returned again—two buffaloes bolted across the college campus, fiercely pursued by rope-swinging cowboys in ten-gallon hats.

Cornering the animals, the cowpunchers drove them off the campus and back to the rodeo, nearby, from which they had escaped.

The animals, appearing with the performance, had pushed through a weakened pen.

State Health Secretary Decries Accident Record

"America is a nation of records. Many of them are good ones, others are quite the contrary. In the latter class belongs the record relating to accidents just released by the National Safety Council," said Doctor Theodore B. Appel, state secretary of health, today.

"The unenviable total of the 99,000 accidental deaths represents the toll for 1930, according to the safety council's figures. And to this frightful sacrifice must be added ten million automobile injuries. Classified as to causes, it is discovered that the automobile as an instrument of death has increased its power, setting a new high mark of 33,000 lives.

"However, it doubtless will be surprising to most people to learn that the council's figures show that home accidents approximated 30,000 deaths and 4,000,000 injuries occurring, as the safety council says, 'with alarming frequency—in the kitchen, in the bathroom, in the bedroom, in the attic, in the garage—everywhere.'

"The one big bright spot in this shocking record is that industry was in no way responsible for the increase. Says the council: 'Included in the 19,000 fatalities listed as industrial are many thousands of occupational deaths not strictly chargeable to the folks who work in the factories. And it also includes 3,000 industrial motor vehicle deaths which are a part of the highway death toll. Manufacturing plants—strictly speaking—accounted for only about 3,000 of these fatalities.'

"It should therefore be apparent to everyone that the main responsibility for this unnecessary loss of life rested upon the individual. Controlled carelessness in the factories and on the railroads has made spectacular progress. It is the uncontrolled carelessness on the street, on the highway and in the home that presents today's social problem.

"It is clear that health departments can do little more than bring this matter before the public. The urge for speed and human indifference are at the bottom of many of the present-day accidents. And while public officials can defeat disease and death through proper control of the milk and water supplies, by the application of quarantine and of preventive medicine generally, they can but stand aghast and helpless before this awful flood of preventable fatalities and injuries for which the individual is solely responsible, and over which he alone has control.

"What will the 1931 record be? Apply the stop, look and listen rule to the activities of daily life. Thus reduce the present black spot, and perhaps save your own life—a worthy object indeed. Be careful!"

Book President, Lions' Voting Tally Reveals

Tuesday's Ballot Results Told; Install New Officers July 7

Earl E. Book, prominent business man of the city particularly active in the work of the Lions Club here, will on Tuesday July 7 be officially installed as the new president of the Lions for the 1931-32 term, succeeding Earl T. Ramsey, leader during the past year. Tallies of last Tuesday's election were first made known today.

Other officers named to serve with Mr. Book are:

First Vice president, Dr. T. M Shaffer: second vice president, M. V. Hyde: third vice president, Dr. Burr M. Rogers: tail twister, W. H. Hodgkinson: lion tamer, W. O. "Red" Williams, sky pilot, Dr. G. S. Bennett and director, J. A. McNeil, Dr. W. C. Mechem and Dr. J. L. Reed.

Vet Assessed $1,500 For Dog He Hasn't

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 12— A disabled war veteran of Depew, Okla., believes county officials are playing a game with him in his tax assessments.

He outlined his complaint in a letter to Attorney General J. Berry King.

"They assessed me for a dog at $1500 and an electric washer.

"I didn't own either one.

"And after she was through (referring to the deputy assessor) she told me there was a $1 fine for failure to assess.

"I paid her the last dollar I had in my pocket.

"Now I want to know, Mr. King, whether that is the law or just a game that county officials are playing with me."

Seek Safest City In Pennsylvania

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 12.—Pennsylvania's Department of Labor and Industry is looking for the safest place to live in the state. It will conduct a contest to determine the "safest city" as a means of checking accidents and increasing protection of residents against accidental death.

Decision will be made by comparison of statistics at a state-wide safety conference early next year. The bureau of inspection, meantime, will go over the accident records of all municipalities in the commonwealth and tabulate fatalities resulting from accidents.

"ONE EYE" WATERLOO

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Cal., June 12—"One Eye" Connolly, nationally famous gate crasher, has met his Waterloo. He has found one gate he cannot crash. It is the big prison gate here. "I went up to see my old friend 'Kid McCoy" Connolly said. "I was a few minutes late and they wouldn't let me in. I looked at the gate and it looked pretty sturdy, so I decided not to bother."

NEW YORK, June 12.—The end is in sight.

The Questionnaire has been sliding down the scale until it has reached the point where they're now sending out Questionnaires on Questionnaires.

SO THAT'S IT.

Brother Hughie Bancroft of the Wall Street Journal has defined the word "depression."

A "depression," he says, is a period of readjustment during which maladjustments are being corrected.

Answering the question: "How much longer is this depression going to last," The Worthy Brother replies:

"That will depend in large measure on just how stupid we are in trying to fight the inevitable."

WORDS, WORDS, WORDS.

"Doc," you say, to the family physican, "I'm off my feed. Can't eat, can't sleep, can't smoke—don't want to drink. I hate the human race, have spots before my eyes, fear the worst and doubt the existence of an all-wise and beneficient Providence. What ails me?"

"Why," says the Doc, screwing up his Socratic phiz, "you're maladjusted."

"Thehellyousay! What does that mean?"

"That means you're sick."

"I know I'm sick. What must I do to get well?"

"You'll have to be readjusted."

"Which means exactly what?"

"It means that you'll have to get well."

"I see. And how long do you suppose it will take?"

I'll tell you," says the Doc. "It will depend in large measure on just how stupid you are in trying to fight the inevitable. Five dollars, please—and don't slam the door when you go out!"

INCIDENT.

An actor out of work, gaunt and hungry, with a white hankerchief masking the lower part of his face stepped into a shirt shop and poking a .22 caliber statge pistol into the proprietor's ribs, piped in a tremolo:

"Get 'em up!"

"Listen laddie," said the shirt shop chap who, when not actively engaged in unloading fancy madras on his fellow man, has a heart as big as Jumb's hind leg, "take the handerchief off your face, toss that pop gun into the ash can and accept ten dollars from me as a little loan. That'll keep your self-respect in place and afford me an opportunity to do a favor to an unknown friend."

The actor removed the handkerchief. He and the shirt shop man got talking. They went to luncheon together and when they came back the erstwhile "stick-up man" had a job as clerk in the shirt shop.

Of course, it might not always work; but as old Ed Howe says: "A reasonable probability is the only certainty."

COME BACK FROM ERIN.

I got a postal card the other day from America's Red Hot Mama—Sophie Tucker. It was a picture of the Royal Hibernian Hotel, in Dublin I won't tell you what Sophie wrote to me. Loving words would not interest you. Past the personal part, she conveyed the glad news that her debut in Dublin had knocked Ireland over on one ear. They're crazy about her over there and heaven only knows when she's going to return.

Aw, come on back, old girl. Th' Palace on Monday afternoon ain't never been th' same since you hauled your freight.

When a horse show or circus is staged in Madison Square Garden special dirt is required to cover 1,000 feet of floor space. Sand soil is objectionable and clay dirt hardens like cement.

The dirt used at the Garden for such events represents careful selection from fifty excavations in the city. It is carefully stored over on the river front and is hauled to and from the arena in 135 truck loads at a time.

5. Zebulon Pike—Captured By The Spaniards

-WHEN NEWS OF PIKE'S PRESENCE IN NEW MEXICO REACHED THE SPANISH AUTHORITIES IN SANTA FE', THEY WERE CONVINCED HE WAS A SPY AND TOOK IMMEDIATE STEPS TO APPREHEND HIM . . . . . .

IN FEBRUARY, 1807, PIKE'S PARTY WAS SURROUNDED BY A STRONG SPANISH FORCE. THE EXPLORERS WERE TOO FEW TO MAKE AN EFFECTIVE RESISTANCE AND YIELDED QUIETLY.

PIKE'S MAPS AND REPORTS WERE TAKEN FROM HIM AND HE WAS HELD A PRISONER FOR SEVERAL MONTHS. HOWEVER, HE WAS TREATED KINDLY BY HIS CAPTORS.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR PIKE'S RELEASE WERE STARTED AS SOON AS HIS CAPTURE BECAME KNOWN, AND IN THE SUMMER OF 1807 THE EXPLORER WAS SET AT LIBERTY.

Giants Defeat Pirates 8 To 6

Giants Take Eleven Inning Game At Pittsburgh—Both Teams Hit Ball Hard

TERRY-BENNETT GET FOUR HITS

FORBES FIELD, Pittsburgh, June 12—It took the New York Giants eleven innings yesterday to register a victory over the Pirates. The score was 8 to 6. It was an interesting battle. Both teams hit the ball hard.

The Giants had seventeen hits off two Pirate pitchers Meine and Spencer, while the Pirates had fourteen safe blows off Hubbell and Berly Terry, and Bennett were the hitting stars of the game with four blows apiece, while Phillips of the Pirates had three hits, including a single, triple and double.

The Pirates tied the game up in the eighth with two runs, and young Harry Grosskloss, rookie helped with a double when pinch-hitting for Meine.

How To Control MacDonald Smith's "Favorite" Shot

By ROY GROVE
Central Press Golf Writer

Copyright, 1931, by Central Press.

NUMBER 29

The pitch for the green up to 75 yards, is one of the most delicate shots in golf.

This is the shot that is winning for MacDonald Smith when he has the feel of the club. He is the master of the mashie-niblick approach.

The most important controlling factor, in the very short pitch, is the lack of knee and body action.

The shot is strictly an arm and wrist movement keeping the pitch and run under control.

The knees are the hinge upon which this movement is built.

Any loose knee action may cause all sorts of trouble in getting the clubhead into the ball at the right point.

The wrists are next in control. The hands work together. The right seems to roll over a bit in getting the clubhead back and into the ball at right angles to the hole.

To use too much wrist snaps the head into the ball with an open or a closed face.

This pulls or slices the ball and it either kicks to the right or the left of the pin and runs from the cup.

The stance is an important position. It is best to play the club with the face a bit open. This enables the player to put a certain amount of cut under the ball without forcing the backspin and stop.

Never look up until you hear the ball hit the green.

ABASH STREET ORATORS.
(International News Service)

MANNHEIM, Germany—The police here have hit on an original method of dealing with street orators who cause crowds to collect and obstruct traffic. Whenever such a group forms, a police truck full of chairs appears, the speaker is politely invited to take one. In every instance the effect has been the same; general laughter by the hearers and the abashed disappearance of the orator.

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY WILLIAM RITT
Central Press Sports Editor

Turned back twice in gallant attempts to win supremacy in a sport on American soil, the Argentine republic tries again this summer on the famous golf battleground which is known as the Inverness Country club of Toledo, O., site of the National Open golf tournament.

Argentina came within an acre of possessing the world's heavyweight ring championship back in 1923 when Luis Firpo, colorful "Wild Bull of the Pampas" smacked Jack Dempsey through the ropes of a New York ring. But Jack climbed back into the ring and put an end to Firpo's and Argentina's heavyweight title dreams.

Argentina tried to wrest world polo supremacy from the United States at Meadow Brook, L. I., last summer. The Latin republic's Big Four—Arturo Kenny, Jack Nelson, John Miles and Lewis Lacey—came within ONE point of dethroning the American international four conquerors of England. Argentina lost the first match by a single point 7-6, defeated the Americans in the second match, 10-7 and then lost the third 13-7. That one point in the first match again blasted Argentina's hopes.

To inverness comes a clever, capable quartet of golfing Argentinians. Jose Jurado, short, strong, a golfer with a rapid swing, is the leader. His troops consist of Tomasco Genta, Marco Churio and Hector Freccero.

That this is a formidable invasion is attested to by what happened a few days ago at Carnoustie, Scotland. There, in the British Open tournament, the field approached the second-to-last hole of the tourney with Jurado leading the entire parade.

But Jose blew up at this crisis and Tommy Armour, slender Scot now living in the United States, pushed through to win.

Jurado, on the record the best golfer of the quartet (he won the Argentine Open titles for 1920, 1924, 1925, 1927 and 1929) is not the only one of the four who distinguished himself at Carnoustie.

In the first two rounds of that hardy struggle Churio came through with 76-75 to be well up in the running. Genta had a 75-78 count at that time.

Tomaso (Thomas, to you) Genta is one of the home run hitters of golf. Bigger than his South American boy friends, Tomaso gets his broad shoulders into his drive and attains distances that at Carnoustie amazed the conservative British gallery.

So when the huge host of warriors unsheath their drivers at Inverness, keep on eye on that little band from South America.

Wampum-Scarazzos Battle On Saturday

Manager Alex Black Plans To Shakeup Lineup Of Scarazzo Team

When the Scarazzos and Wampum baseball teams clash in a Lawrence County league tilt on Saturday afternoon at Centennial field, a shake-up in the Scarazzo lineup may be seen.

Manager Alec Black of the Scarazzos stated today that his team has not been playing up to expectations and he contemplates a shake-up in the hope of securing better results. To date the playing of Calipetri and Byak has featured for the South Siders. Calipetri was recently secured from Youngstown.

Scaglione, Mash, Genock, Palus and Turco have asked for releases so that they could join other clubs. Joe Testa a new addition to the Scarazzo club or John Shields may hurl for the Al Scarazzo nine. Just who Wampum will use is not known. The game starts at 3:00 o'clock.

Yale to Robins

Bruce Caldwell (above), former star football and baseball player for the Yale University team, has been purchased by the Brooklyn baseball team of the National League. Caldwell, a first baseman, will go to his new team at the end of the present season. Playing now with the New Haven, Conn., team of the Eastern League, Caldwell is the leading home-run hitter of the circuit.

June Tournament Will Start Soon

Drawings Will Be Made In The Immediate Future For The Event

Preparations are being completed for the annual June Handicap Elimination Tournament for the men golfers of the New Castle Field club. Play will be under seven-eighths handicap and will be started as soon as there are thirty-two entries. One match a week must be played in order to keep in the competition.

There will be prizes for the winner and runnerup of the first flight and also prizes for the winner and runnerup in the Consolation Flight. Indications are that this annual event will get under way the first of the week.

Universals Play West Pittsburg

Victory For Universals Means Deadlock For County League Honors

One of the most important games in the Lawrence county baseball league on Saturday afternoon will be the Universal-West Pittsburg tilt which is carded for the Universal field. Three other games top off the baseball attraction in this city tomorrow.

While the Universals and West Pittsburg team are battling, the other three games carded are Wampum at Scarazzo, Centennial field; Hillsville at Brent and Shenango at North Highland. Bessemer will be idle.

Both the Universal and West Pittsburg fans are enthused about the contest tomorrow. A victory for the Universals, who are going good lately, will mean a tie for first place honors with West Pittsburg. Then if West Pittsburg wins it will still be on top of the league.

Fans are looking forward to some of the best games played in the league to date on Saturday. With ideal baseball weather the local parks should be jammed with ardent baseball followers.

Cascade Nine Noses Civics

MUNICIPAL ORCHESTRA COMPOSED OF NEGROES

BALTIMORE, Md., June 12.—Baltimore is the only city in the country to have a municipal negro orchestra. It was organized with $1,000 donated by an anonymous citizen and money for its operation was included in the city's 1931 budget. Charles L. Harris is the conductor and the orchestra will play for negroes exclusively.

SIEGE GUN OF PACIFIC COAST LOOP

Dave Barbee, known to Pacific Coast league fans as the "Big Moose," is the home run swatter of that circuit. Barbee is a Hollywood outfielder and has been hitting home runs in typical Ruthian style, leading the coast circuit swatters.

Lockleys Trip Shenango Tin

The Lockley Machine Shop mushball team tightened its lead in the class A mushball league last night at Washington field by topping the Shenango Tin 5 to 2 in a fast game. Rodgers opposed Quigley on the mound and it was a pitchers' battle. Nickie Ross and Williams were the feature hitters.

IN THE ARMY

For "showing undue familiarity with the men under him" by playing cards with them for money in the barrack room, a corporal of the Royal Engineers was sentenced by an Aldershot court martial to be reduced to the ranks.

LETTER SENT SOLDIER DEAD FOR 67 YEARS

(International News Service)

TORRINGTON, Conn., June 12.—Postal officials here were stirred when they received a letter addressed to Lieutenant Edward H. Mix, Wolcottville. Lieutenant Mix had been dead since March 8, 1864. He left here in May, 1861, and was drowned in Albemarle Sound, North Carolina, while on active service. It was believed the letter came from someone checking a list of Civil War veterans.

THE LOST 159,822.

Last year 159,822 articles—left by forgetful Londoners in trams and buses and in the streets and open spaces—were deposited at the lost property office. This was a reduction of 21,247 on the previous year. Fees paid by losers for the return of their property amounted to 2,900 pounds.

Wave Of Profit Taking Affects Stock Prices

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 12.—A wave of profit taking in the early trading today forced prices of the active Industrials and Utilities about a point lower. The Rails at the beginning of the session carried forward the advance which featured Thursday's close, Union Pacific leading with 2½ points rise to 159½. Early selling of the Industrials was attributed mostly to the professionals, many of whom have been attempting to check the rise in the market leaders.

A further drop in the German Government 5½ per cent bonds and German Republic 7s, accompanying the decline in the mark to 23.69½ cents called attention to the present difficulties in the German Government in attempting to "support" the mark in the foreign exchange markets. Uneasiness over reparation payments and the reported forth-coming moratorium in relation to foreign obligations, has been repeatedly felt in all the important international financial centers. German 5½s and German Republic 7s sold today at the lowest prices on record.

Though Auburn Auto, Allied Chemical and a few other high-priced specialties fell off 2 to 4 points in narrow trading, price changes among the market leaders were comparatively small. United States Steel sold in the second hour at 89½, compared with Thursday's close at 91⅛, but losses in General Motors, Westinghouse, General Electric, Radio, American Can and other leaders were mostly fractional. Consolidated Gas slipped off 1¾ to 91. Wall Street gossip revolved principally around a reported "fight" between two powerful groups of bulls and bears, the latter having been badly whipped in the last few days but ready to return for battle.

Call money was unchanged at 1½ per cent.

Wrong-Doers Warned To Avoid Versailles

PARIS, June 12.—Murderers keep away from Versailles. This is the advice offered by lawyers here who point out the number of convictions returned by local juries.

"It's all wrong" they protest. "We can't quarantee our clients an acquittal any more."

Disdaining the publicity given Versailles by the trial and subsequent execution of Landru, the French 'Blue Beard" in 1921, the townsfolf have in the opinion of lawyers, determined to keep the departmental capitol brightly burnished. Longer and harder sentences with the death penalty if possible are the rule rather than the exception they point out.

Lady Edmee Owen was given five years solitary confinement in the local jail when her numerous friends confidently expected an acquittal. Last year Marcel Morice, 19 year old slayer of a 60 year old woman, lost his head on the guillotine.

The latest to die under the Versailles knife is George Loos, another 19 year old murdered who was executed for the murder of a taxi-driver.

COLORED MAN IS SENT FROM CITY

William Jones, colored, was arrested last night about 11:20 o'clock after being caught looking through a number of cars in the seventh ward district. In one instance he is reported to have pulled a knife on Aver Yates. He was arrested by Officer Suber and sent in. This morning Mayor William H. Gillespie ordered him to leave the city at once and he was given a start on his way by the city police.

NOAH NUMSKULL

Opera Star Sued

Blamed for his destitution by the man who claims to have aided and improved her voice, Frieda Hempel, former Metropolitan Opera star, is being sued by Professor Johannes Adler, of Berlin, for $50,000. Adler charges that Miss Hempel induced him to leave Germany and when he reached America she ignored him, breaking a verbal contract made in 1927.

1930 Champs Are Favorites

Considered by many dopesters as favorites to win the intercollegiate rowing regatta on the Hudson River at Poughkeepsie, the crew of Cornell University, 1930 champions, is going to find plenty of competition from the eight other shells racing against them June 16. This picture shows the Ithaca, N. Y., college boys starting out for a practice run with their skipper, Commodore Heidelberger, shown at right and veteran Coach Jim Wray at left.

Roy, St. Lewis, U. S. district attorney of Oklahoma City, above, has been appointed assistant attorney general in charge of admiralty and war risk insurance, at Washington, D. C., by President Hoover.

Colored Lodges To Gather Here

Members of colored Masonic lodges from different cities are to attend the program marking the sixth annual St. John's Day ceremonies of the tenth Masonic district scheduled to occur in the Second Baptist church on Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the local Alms lodge No. 63.

Mayor W. H. Gillespie will extend an official welcome to the visitors.

THE OLD HOME TOWN By Stanley

"Lady Luck's" Boy Friend

A few days ago John Jenkins was just a semi-blind basketmaker in London, Eng., without a solitary ray of hope that he would ever be anything else. But one wide grin from old Dame Fortune changed all that and, overnight, John became a man of affluence with the tag "Lucky John" hung on him by all who know him. Jenkins held the winning ticket on Cameronian in the English Derby and is shown above being felicitated by a few of his old friends.

WISCONSIN DARK HORSE OF POUGHKEEPSIE REGATTA

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

These are the days the poet had in mind when he wrote "and what is so rare as a day in June, then if ever, come perfect days" and when he wrote it perhaps he had Lawrence County in mind on days like today. If there ever was a more perfect morning than this one was, the memory of it is lost.

Yesterday's issue of The News carried an editorial concerning the sending out of tax notices to citizens owing county taxes. Apparently the idea has hit fire for already there is a lot of reaction towards the proposal.

There seems to be no valid reason why a taxpayer should be notified that he owes the city, but he has to find out if he owes the county. Beaver County commissioners recently asked why Lawrence County was plugging along in the old inefficient manner in the matter of county tax notification and nobody knew the answer.

There is no thought to criticize anyone for what is past, but there should be something done in the immediate future. A man working in the mill is working during the business hours of the court house. A farmer likewise. In the stress of a busy time he forgets that he owes county taxes and the next thing he is paying a premium, or is delinquent.

A card notice to him is definite information that he owes his county taxes and that he must pay them on or before a certain date or be penalized. It's an advantage to the taxpayer and the card can be so constructed that the stub can be used as the office record when the taxes are paid.

Lawyer Patrolman Wins His Case

(International News Service)

DETROIT, June 12.—Attorneys and judges in Recorders court crowded into Judge John A. Boyne's court room to hear John D. Shea, patrolman, in full uniform, act as special prosecutor.

Shea, a graduate of the Detroit College of Law, was appointed to prosecute Mabel Young, 35, when the prosecutor telephoned he would be late in arriving. Twenty minutes after the jury was given the case it returned a verdict of guilty, and Shea asked the court for leniency.

"You did the work well," the court said. "Your request shows you to be a gentleman. However, under the law I must sentence this woman to from six months to two years in the Detroit House of Correction as it is her third offense."

Elephant Gets Insurance Renewed

(International News Service)

ERIE, Pa., June 12.—"Tomboy," the ambling pachyderm who provides most of the fun at the Glenwood zoo here, is going to have his life insured for another year.

American companies refused to accept Tomboy as a profitable risk so the city fathers appealed to Lloyd's of London. The English company which insures anything from trans-Atlantic flights to crops, accepted "Tomboy" on a $2,500 policy.

The big elephant is worth $7,000 alive and hardly anything dead. And the city solons know that even elephants aren't immortal.

So "Tomboy's" premiums have been paid for the sixth year.
